Prayer for the Society.

O GOD, from Whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all works of piety and charity do proceed, we beseech Thee to prosper with Thy blessing the designs of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. Comfort with Thy grace those benefactors who contribute to its support. Bless the ministry of Thy servants, the clergy; the endeavours of all who are engaged in spreading the knowledge of true religion in this kingdom; and the labours of those missionaries who are promoting the same in foreign parts.

And may Thy Holy Spirit direct all their consultations to the advancement of Thy glory and the good of Thy Church, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Suggested Intercessions for the Society's Work.

SUNDAY.—That the Dioceses established and Churches built with the Society's help may be centres of Christian activity.

MONDAY.—That St. Katharine's College, the Sunday Schools built by the Society's help, and all other efforts to promote religious education may be guided and blessed.

TUESDAY.—That the S.P.C.K. Chaplains may succeed in their work of drawing emigrants nearer to God, and so help to build up Christ's Church in the British Empire.

WEDNESDAY.—That writers may be inspired to produce and the Committees to choose such books as will promote true Christian Knowledge.

THURSDAY.—That the men being trained with the Society's help in the Colonies and Mission Field to preach the Gospel as Clergymen, Lay Readers, and Catechists, may go to their work full of faith and the Holy Ghost.

FRIDAY.—That the Medical Missions being helped and Doctors being trained by the Society may prepare the way of the Lord.

SATURDAY.—That all executive officials may be faithful and zealous. That men may always be forthcoming to carry on the work done by our predecessors during the past 228 years.

Thanksgiving for the Society's Work.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Father of all mercies, we Thine unworthy servants do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men; particularly for that providential support by which this Society hath been enabled to spread abroad the knowledge of Thy sacred truth; but, above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by Thy blessed Son; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory which Thou hast given us in the same our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ; to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE HONOUR OF THE LORD.

INTRODUCTION.

"I will open my mouth in a parable : I will declare hard sentences of old ; which we have heard and known : and such as our fathers have told us ; that we should not hide them from the children of the generations to come : but to show the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done" (Psalm 78, 2–4).

THIS is the version of the Psalm which we sing and with which we are most familiar. The questions of context and translation need not arise in the use which we make of these verses in choice of a title for our annual record of help to the Church universal.

"The honour of the Lord" is surely a right paraphrase of our Society's name, and our purpose is to hand on what things we have heard and known, what our fathers have told us, and that we should not hide them from the children of the generations to come.

How have we shared our heritage with our own people overseas and with those of other races? We at the Society's house, elected committees and appointed officers, have endeavoured to administer the funds—the gifts of yourself and other readers—so that "the honour of the Lord" may be shown and upheld.

If in the following pages it appears that more than the due amount of space is devoted to our work "At the Ports and on the Ships," there is good reason for this. The World Call Report on "Our Own People Overseas" has been published recently, and has attracted attention to the needs of our own kith and kin in whatever land they live. A first stage in the care for their welfare has for nearly a century been our work. In the name of the Church of England, and with its authority, S.P.C.K. has had its Chaplains at the ports and on the ships to minister to those who are going as Empire Settlers. The Church has now its official body to encourage the migration of Church people, but in the new scheme S.P.C.K. is recognised as the member which arranges for the service of Chaplains to minister to them.

Prominence is therefore given to this side of our work both here in the introductory pages and in the special section devoted to the care of Empire Settlers.

Where "the honour of the Lord" is concerned there is no room for comparison in the value of this or that effort. We ask our readers, as they pass on, to consider each section of our book as a record of some particular interest, and if this or that section appeals to them as worthy of support, their gifts will be welcome for its development.

One request may be added here. Will our readers endeavour to interest others, to show that S.P.C.K. is necessary, not only in the realm of literature, but in all other departments of its work?

AT THE PORTS AND ON THE SHIPS.

THE World Call Report on "Our Own People Overseas" has appeared; many thousand copies have been sold and presumably read by persons who are interested in the welfare of those of our own race dwelling in other lands within and without the wide bounds of our Empire.

The report was "presented" on May 17 at a crowded meeting in the Church House, when attention was drawn to our work of Port and Voyage Chaplains for Empire settlers; and again at the Guildhall on Empire Day, May 24th, the Right Hon. L. S. Amery, Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs and for the Colonies, referred to this work of S.P.C.K. (and to no other Society).

The Report states:

"For new settlers much more could be done than is done by letters of recommendation from the parish priest, and by making better use of the Port Chaplaincies and Voyage Chaplaincies of the S.P.C.K. . . . Every detail about the travellers introduced to the Port Chaplain on this side will be communicated to the Port Chaplain on the other side, and then to the parish priest nearest to their destination. Meantime on board ship the Voyage Chaplain will have got into friendly touch with them. The pity of it is that so little use is made of this and other similar systems by parish priests at home and abroad."

The Bishop of Salisbury, chairman of the meeting at the Church House, held aloft a copy of our new "Church's Care for Intending Settlers," and addressed himself to the clergy in the audience. "You have all had this, so there is no excuse for you if you do not commend your people to the Port and Voyage Chaplains."

Advertising is strongly advocated by those who have a financial interest in the matter, and claim that excellent results are assured! Our work has had the benefit of free advertisement by those whose interest is of another kind, and we hope that there may be excellent results. The Port Chaplains can tell us whether their correspondence is showing the welcome increase which is much to be desired.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, at our Founders' Day Meeting, laid emphasis on the value of our work in giving attention to seeing that those who settled overseas should be looked after both on the sea voyage and also so far as possible on their arrival. His Grace said that it would be worth while spending a great deal more than the £3,500 that the Society was now giving to the work.

Again at a Conference of speakers on this matter at High Leigh, preliminary to the publication of the World Call Report, some time was given at one session to the value of commendatory letters and the strange rarity of such communications. It was noticeable that all the speakers who had worked overseas applauded the efforts of S.P.C.K. to remedy the defect, and bore witness to the real help of letters about new arrivals in countries overseas. More advertisement which should be helpful if it rouses those who are in a position to respond!

In the matter of Voyage Chaplains there are at least two factors which keep down the number of clergy available for this service. First, the reduced number of men in Holy Orders undoubtedly makes it difficult for men to get away from their parishes and take a trip even to Canada within the time limit of a holiday. Secondly, the cost of a passage at present rates deters some of those who might choose under more favourable conditions to spend a month's holiday on a sea voyage. The longer voyage to S. Africa, Australia and New Zealand is a different problem. The remedy for the first point may be found when the tide turns and there are more clergy. The remedy for the second point lies in the power of the Society to spend more as remuneration for Voyage Chaplains, and thereby make a greater contribution to the cost of the passages.

The number of Voyage Chaplains has been—to Canada 56 (56); S. Africa, 31 (29); Australia, 26 (30); New Zealand, 9 (8)—a total of 122 (123). (The figures in brackets indicate those of the previous year.)

The work at the ports remains in the same efficient hands except at Belfast, where the Rev. W. P. Hosford, Missions to Seamen Chaplain, has taken the place of the Rev. H. G. Maturin.

The sympathetic help of the officials of the docks and of the Shipping Companies continues, and is evidence that the Society's Chaplains are going about their work in a way which is in accord with the views of those who have authority in the sphere where the Chaplains exercise their ministry.

Co-operation with the Church of England Council of Empire Settlement, as with other Church organisations, continues, but too frequently our reply to their inquiries about a Voyage Chaplain has to be of a negative kind, and we feel that we have failed to meet a need,—our task has not been fulfilled; and perhaps there is risk of suspicion that our advertisements have gone beyond the bounds of accuracy! But inquiry at least shows that our work is known and wanted.

Big ships with over 1,000 passengers too frequently sail without a Chaplain because the cost of the passage cannot be met. A few substantial gifts from persons keen on the welfare of Church and Empire would provide the remedy and the link which is missing from the chain which should connect the Church here at home with the Church there overseas.

"A pioneer Empire" (declared Mr. Amery at the Guildhall) "and a stay-at-home Church go ill together." Surely his words include the care of Empire settlers while on the sea.

The Port Chaplains give their own account of the daily work as they see it day by day. Letters of commendation are, as they point out, the one thing needed for greater usefulness.

Liverpool.—Report of the Rev. H. E. Elwell.—A Report of the year's work in ministering to the spiritual needs of those leaving these shores for the first time to settle overseas would seem to fall naturally under certain headings. So I propose to adopt this plan as far as the Port of Liverpool is concerned.

1. Commendations.—These come either from various Societies or from individuals. These Societies are: Church of England Council of Empire Settlement, Church Emigration Society, Society for the Oversea Settlement of British Women, Church Army, British Dominions Empire Association, Waifs and Strays Society and Girls' Friendly Society. Their lists have been regularly forwarded, their people found, and a reply sent stating what has been done. I believe our efforts are appreciated, and I may say we are only too pleased to do all we can for those commended in this way. Letters from individuals are mostly from the parish Clergy, and here there would not seem to be the same regularity. Some appear never to fail to know when their parishioners are going away and to write; others may know and not think it worth while to send a line, and others, again, appear to be out of touch with their people and certainly out of touch with us. Quite recently I visited a Canadian-bound ship for which there had been no Commendations, and yet I found nearly all the third-class passengers were Church of England. They were all only too pleased to be talked to, families or individuals; there was no doubt about that, they all most gratefully received a "Church's Care for Intending Settlers" and put it away. They came from different parts of England and Wales; many of them said their Clergyman knew they were leaving, and some that he had promised to write. But not a single letter or card had been received. If the Clergy do read these Reports, I sincerely hope they will give heed to our request, for they can but little know the help and comfort it is for the emigrant to have a friend at "Court," or rather "Port." Truly, the number of those commended shows a considerable increase, as also the number of letters, but the increase should be far greater. Verb. sap.

2. "Church's Care for Intending Settlers."—The little book bearing this title has been revised and duly deposited with us for use in place of the old. It is called the "Green" book. I have mentioned that it is always willingly accepted and carefully stowed away, generally with tickets, Government forms, and other treasures, and, I have good reason to know, leads the possessors to call on the Clergy whose names are to be found in it, and that not merely for pecuniary assistance.

Let me quote a letter in evidence. "A gentleman mentioned in that little book you gave me, Canon Vernon, has promised me an introduction in Toronto which I hope will be of considerable service. By the way, that volume is invaluable to a newcomer, and I cannot express my thanks for the gift."

It was my part in the revision to write to the Bishops of Canada and the United States for additions and corrections. In their replies many of the Bishops spoke of the value of the book and the readiness of their Clergy as well as of themselves to make the acquaintance of the new-comer and to welcome him in church and out.

Without this book your Port Chaplain would find his work more difficult, and frequently he is asked for a copy by those who are not Church of England or are even only going out on a visit.

3. General Ship Visitation.—This has been consistently carried out on all ships leaving for Canada, the United States, Australia, New Zealand, and when requested to other parts of the world such as India, South America, the West Coast of Africa and Newfoundland.

The numbers visited are just about the same as last year.

4. Chaplains on board Ship.—Curiously enough, the figures for this year are the same as last, but bear no comparison to those of pre-war years. Possibly this may be due to shortage of Clergy generally, and probably to a res angusta domi.

Our need of Chaplains is greatest from the middle of March to the end of May, and I hope it may be possible another year, either by an increase of funds or a redistribution of the money available, to offer better inducements than we have been able to do of late. It hurts badly to see a ship with 1,000 or more third-class first-timers leaving the Port with no Chaplain on board. The Chaplains we have had have done good work among their temporary flocks, and their services have been greatly appreciated.

5. General.—There remains to thank all our good friends in Liverpool once again for their extraordinary kindness and good fellowship; they are to be found at St. Nicholas Church, the Canadian Government Office, the Shipping Offices, the Landing Stage, the Docks, and last but by no means least on the ships themselves, and I must not forget the Rev. A. E. Wykes, who is always ready to help me in time of need. Together we have tried, and I hope not altogether in vain, to be "fellow-workers with Him" and to promote the knowledge that carries with it His Name.

London.—Report of the Rev. W. C. Bown.—In spite of very unsettled times, which found their zenith in the National Strike, a large increase in the emigration work of this Port has been shown. One hundred vessels have been seen off; 31 Chaplains have been appointed; 1,659 passengers have been commended and 585 letters of commendation have been received. One of the most pleasing features has been the large number of commendations received from the Church of England Council of Empire Settlement. The most outstanding feature of the year was the delay of a P. & O. liner, Berrima, when about 1,100 passengers were stranded owing to dense fog on Tilbury Pier. The P. & O. Company again sought help from the Chaplain to provide a meal for the hundreds who were cold and hungry. This was satisfactorily accomplished by the help of many of the parishioners of S. John the Baptist, Tilbury Docks, who had been previously warned, as we at Tilbury were better able to judge the state of the weather before the boat trains arrived. The amount of gratitude that was shown both by the Company and the passengers was more than ample reward for the energy expended.

Amongst other interesting items, although somewhat tragic, was the request of one of the Shipping Companies to the Port Chaplain to break the news to a young man who was going overseas, that his father had died during the night and to request his return at once to Scotland. Another request was to find "A lady wearing a primrose in her button-hole." On the morning we went to look for her almost every person had a primrose in their coat. However, the lady was found. One man was described as "a cut-throat-looking person but a real white man." He also was found. Another, a lady without a name, was described as "not unacquainted with Church music." On this occasion she found us. But on one occasion we completely failed—on the American Farmer; the only description received on the morning the ship sailed was "a thick-set round-faced person." The captain of the American Farmer took a hand in trying to find the individual. His remarks were interesting: "They must sure think you are Scotland Yard. I guess she must be some bird from the amount of trouble you are taking." All this trouble, although humorous, is annoying when many other passengers have to be seen and time is limited. If oversea travellers would only wear their badge which is provided, instead of safely packing it away in their trunk, this oversight might be avoided.

That our work is valued by the Church at large is evidenced by the number of letters of thanks received. A diocesan bishop writes, "I am most grateful for trouble taken"; another says, "With all good wishes and thanks for help"; another, "Was much encouraged," and still another, "It was very good of you." We could go on quoting at great length from the many letters of thanks which have been received.

Each year the work seems to become more important and interesting as one more fully realises how impressionable the travellers are at the time of sailing, and it is a matter of the deepest regret that the Voyage Chaplain is becoming still more rare. That the captains of the liners appreciate the Voyage Chaplain is borne out by the words and look of disappointment when one has to report, "No Chaplain for this voyage."

This year it was especially noticeable around Lent and Holy Week. Many good Church people on the high seas this year had to go without their Easter Communion. Many expressions of regret were heard on quite a number of liners when this first became apparent.

In conclusion one must again thank the Shipping Companies for their kind interest and ever-ready offers of help to assist in the work. It is indeed a pleasure to feel that the laity are so keen on a definite religious movement. To the London Midland and Scottish Railway Company, represented by Mr. G. A. Bottomley, the station-master at Tilbury, for many acts of courtesy and help, we extend our grateful thanks. Last but not least our thanks are due to the St. Andrew's Waterside Church Mission for again allowing their launch to be used in this important work.

Southampton.—Report of the Rev. P. R. Butler.—The statistics for the year at the Port of Southampton show a very marked increase in every department. As compared with the previous year the figures are: total of ships visited, 292 (288); migrants specially commended 1,594 (577); letters of commendation received, 543 (177); Chaplains placed on board ships, 40 (23). (Figures in brackets indicate previous year.)

This is a very notable increase and is due to various causes. The number of personally commended migrants is particularly encouraging. Three causes at least operate here. The activities of the Church of England Council of Empire Settlement have undoubtedly increased the number of commendations, as every person passing through their hands carries a letter of introduction to both Port and Voyage Chaplains. Secondly, the work at the ports is apparently becoming better known than in the past to the parochial clergy and others. There has this year been a large increase of commendations from parish priests, and also, one is glad to note, from private individuals whose friends are travelling and who take the trouble to let us know of the fact. In these letters a frequent reference to their parish magazine, e.g. "I saw your name in our local magazine and am writing to you, etc." seems to indicate one excellent way of bringing our work before the laity. Lastly, and by no means least, it must be remembered that Southampton is a rapidly growing port. Every year larger numbers of migrants sail from here, and when the new dock extension, which is on a colossal scale, is completed it will become the premier passenger port of the world.

It will be noticed that the number of letters received has rather more than trebled. This is, again, a source of great encouragement and, as stated above, is largely due to the number of what one may call "private commendations" as distinct from those from Societies. At the same time, we shall not be contented till they are multiplied by at least ten, and every individual or family is the subject of a separate letter!

The increase in the number of Voyage Chaplains is gratifying, but far more are needed if the work is to be really efficiently carried out. The shortage is most severe on "long-distance ships" such as those sailing to New Zealand. Twenty-eight New Zealand boats sailed from Southampton in the year and only five carried Chaplains. This put bluntly means that if each ship averaged 300 C. of E. migrants (a very low estimate), 6,900 people were deprived of the sacraments and ministrations of their Church over a period of six weeks from this port alone. It is certainly a question which the Church as a whole ought to face. That there is no sort of difficulty to be apprehended from the Shipping Companies or the ship's personnel is shown by the treatment that the right type of "padre" receives from both.

An important and much-appreciated side of the work in Southampton has been the housing of migrants the night before sailing. A very large number of families and individuals have been found rooms and met at the stations. This affords the chance of a more personal visit than can be worked on board on sailing day, and by the time of departure passenger and Chaplain are quite old friends. This department is also increasing, largely thanks to the advertisement given to it by the C. of E. Council of Empire Settlement and by the parish magazines aforesaid. No side of the work comes in for more gratitude, and one receives endless letters of thanks from relations of the migrants as well as from the passengers themselves. My desk paper-weight consists of a large lump of tin ore, donated by an almost tearfully grateful Cornish miner who with his large family had been so bestowed.

I am glad to report that the most cordial relations obtain with the Shipping Companies and the various officials, among whom I count not least as my friends the police at the Docks. Every possible courtesy and help is always extended to me and I am glad to be able to record this.

Equally cordial co-operation also obtains between other Societies working on migration here and myself. The Y.M.C.A. Port Secretary in particular is most helpful in referring all Church of England cases to me.

As regards the migrants themselves—after all the most important people—the work has been particularly interesting this year. Owing to the various migration schemes and the Church Nomination system, a higher proportion ot families than in the past have gone out. These entail a good deal more looking after than single individuals, but the opportunity and their gratitude make the work more than worth while. Extracts from two typical letters speak for themselves :—

"Please accept my very grateful thanks for your kindness to the —— family. They were most touched by your kindness."

"Thank you very much indeed for the trouble you took in putting —— in touch with the Voyage Chaplain. I sent your card on to the lad's mother and she was almost overcome with joy."

Such notes make the work go easily and joyfully. Looking back over the past year, one can say with certainty that if the Clergy and laity at large will stand behind us and provide us with the sinews of war in the shape of money and commendations and Voyage Chaplains, not the least important part of the answer to the "World Call" will be given in the ports and on the ships of the British Empire.

Glasgow and Greenock.—Report of the Rev. R. H. Andrews.—Emigration from the Ports of Glasgow and Greenock was not so brisk in the early part of the year under consideration, as last year, though the number of ships sailing was quite up to last year's standard.

During the past few months the numbers have increased very much, and the people who have been seen and talked to are rather more numerous than last year.

The work is very much the same from year to year, only I am glad to be able to say that the Clergy are taking an increasing interest in these people who are going abroad, and commendatory letters are received quite frequently.

The emigrants are most grateful for the help given, and some seem astonished that the Church should take so much trouble over them, especially when it is pointed out that they need never be without the help of the Church on any part of their journey.

Our thanks are due to the Shipping Companies, who continue to give every facility that might enable us to get into touch with our people.

Belfast.—Report of the Rev. W. P. Hosford.—The officials connected with the Shipping Companies in this port have shown us every courtesy and kindness.

The second emigrant I spoke to after my appointment here was an old parishioner whom I had known as a child twenty-two years ago; I had not seen or heard of him until I met him on the tender.

I asked a man his religion. He first said "Church," and then said "I am nothing." I suggested now that he was starting out on a new life it was a good time to think matters over. Two young fellows who were standing by, also emigrants, took him in hand and talked to him in a surprisingly forcible and sympathetic way, and he finished up by taking a Gospel of St. John, promising to read it and to make a fresh start on the other side.

A somewhat similar case occurred a few days later when another man who said he was nothing promised to join a Church in Canada.

A number of emigrants other than Church people from time to time come and ask for booklets and take a real interest in the work.

A point is made of seeing, if possible, and talking to personally every Church emigrant from our port, and with three exceptions we have gone down the Lough in the tender each time she carried emigrants. Sometimes it is not possible to go down to a ship, as three ships sail on the same day and two at practically the same hour, but on occasions like this the emigrants are seen and each given an S.P.C.K. booklet before they board the tender.

The emigrants gratefully accept the S.P.C.K. booklet, and many of them express very real gratitude for the interest the Church is taking in them.

THE FOREIGN LITERATURE COMMITTEE.

Report for Year ending March 31, 1927.

The progress reported last year has been well maintained. The Committee have held frequent meetings at which the needs of nearly every part of the world have been surveyed. A particularly cheering feature of the work is the spirit of harmony and co-operation which exists among the religious organisations confronted with the literature problem. The Society is able to work with Societies representing other religious bodies without any compromising of Church principles.

(i) Europe.—For convenience of internal arrangements Welsh books come within the province of this Committee. It is a pleasure to publish a Welsh edition of the Bishop of St. Davids' Holy Worship. Probably in the near future the Society will be called upon to provide Welsh versions of the New Prayer Book.

(ii) The Near East.—The third year of the Egypt and Palestine Committee has seen a steady stream of Arabic books and an improvement in sales, which amounted to £262 for the year, a considerable achievement in view of the smallness of the Christian community and the low price of the books. Our art missionary, Miss Wood, has continued her work, and her position has been made secure for some years to come, thanks to a generous special donation. A grant of £100 has been promised to initiate literature work in the Sudan. The Jerusalem Committee has been assured of generous backing from the Home Society if they can see their way to take a proper shop for the sale of Arabic literature.

A new development is the beginning of Persian publishing in connection with the C.M.S. and the Inter-Mission Committee.

(iii) India presents great problems. The way at last seems to be open for a development of Church literature on a more ambitious scale. The Committee have met the Metropolitan once more and a scheme has been adopted, which had been drafted at a meeting in Madras to which each Diocese sent representatives. £500 has been promised to inaugurate the new scheme, and the next step is to find a suitable person as Secretary.

The various Diocesan Committees have been fairly active. Bombay and Lahore have received more local support than previously, and a number of Marathi and Urdu publications are in preparation. A Bengali version of the Book of Wisdom has been warmly welcomed by appreciative readers, including the poet Rabindranath Tagore.

(iv) The Far East.—China has been so unsettled that the output has fallen considerably. Bishop Norris describes vividly the difficulties caused by hostile local governments. The American Mission is sharing the responsibility of the work with us, and, the moment the way is clear, the local Committee can go forward.

The Secretary of the Church Publishing Society of Tokyo, the Rev. R. D. M. Shaw, has been home on furlough and has consulted with the Society about the kinds of literature required. The chief need is dogmatic and devotional theology to steady the young Church of Japan, of a kind for which a large sale cannot be expected, but which will not be provided at all if the Anglicans neglect their duty.

(v) Africa, General.—The situation has cleared up considerably. The new (International) African Institute has got to work. Its objective is to safeguard African culture and to prevent excessive Europeanisation. It is in close touch with Governments and scientific bodies, and missionary interests are well represented in its councils. It has no intention of engaging in publication, but will assist others in linguistic problems. On the missionary side the important body is the African Literature Committee in connection with the Conference of British Missionary Societies. For some years Canon Rowling, formerly of Uganda, has been the part-time Secretary of this Committee; it is now hoped to secure a full-time worker, with the help of the American Societies.

To facilitate S.P.C.K.'s playing a worthy part in these new developments, we have formed a new Committee, called "African Books Advisory Committee," on which the Anglican Societies working in Africa are represented. The task of the new Committee is, primarily, to plan books written in English for use in African schools which can be translated, with necessary adaptations, into the various vernaculars. It is not a publishing Committee, but will advise the existing Committee of the needs and suggest how they may best be met. Further, the Society has concluded a working arrangement with the other Societies publishing books in England for export to Africa, so that resources may, as far as possible, be pooled and overlapping avoided.

(vi) West Africa.—There is little here to report, but important conferences have been held which may lead to developments in the future.

(vii) East and Central Africa.—In Swahili and Luganda many new books have been published; the orthographical difficulties which had been preventing progress have now been cleared away. A grant of £100 a year has been promised to Canon Rowling as a literary worker under the Uganda Diocesan Committee. Charming editions of The Pilgrim's Progress have been published with specially prepared African illustrations.

(viii) South Africa.—The Provincial Conference on Literature referred to last year has now been held, and definite recommendations have been submitted to the Society, with the backing of the Episcopal Synod. They concern both the production and the distribution of literature. As regards the first, £100 has been granted as prize-money to stimulate the production of literature by native authors. Distribution is a difficult problem. The Church Depots, especially Capetown and Grahamstown, have been doing good work, but it seems that something in the nature of a wholesale depot is required, from which Mission Stations can draw supplies of literature without having to send to England.

(ix) Canada.—Here we are able to report a satisfactory arrangement with the Missionary Society of the Church in Canada, by which it and the S.P.C.K. share the responsibility for new books in Indian and Eskimo languages.

A complete list of works published since the last Report will be found on p. 231. The number of items there given is 130, an advance of 42 on the 88 of the two previous years, and of 96 on the 34 of three years ago.

A financial statement appears on p. 80. It is in a different form from that of the previous year and does not lend itself to comparison. But the totals speak for themselves. In 1913–14 the total of the account was £2,497 13*s.* 4*d.* The growth is over five-fold.

The most important grants made during the year under review are as follows:—

£500 to the Egypt and Palestine Committee, for Arabic Literature.

900 Passion Narrative in Arabic to Miss Padwick, Cairo.

Rs. 332 to the Calcutta Committee (block grant) for Bengali Literature.

£5 10*s.* for Old Testament pictures for use in a Bengali book.

Rs. 190 towards an altar edition of Collects, Epistles and Gospels in Bengali.

Rs. 870 to the Bombay Committee (block grant) for Marathi Literature.

Rs. 900 for a Metrical Version of the Psalms in Marathi.

£50 to the Colombo Diocesan Committee (block grant) for Sinhalese Literature.

Rs. 420 to the Lahore Committee (block grant) for Urdu Literature.

Rs. 1,057 for Urdu Commentary on 2 Corinthians.

Rs. 2,178 for Urdu Prayer-Books (Persian and Roman script); also for Secretarial Assistance.

Rs. 490 for Persian Punjabi Village Prayer-Books.

£25 to the Tinnevelly Committee (block grant) for Tamil Literature.

Rs. 303 to the Dornakal Committee (block grant) for Telegu Literature.

£15 for Telegu Literature (additional).

Rs. 1,350 for the Karen Prayer-Books, Rangoon Diocese.

£80 to the Church Literature Committee of the Chinese Church for Chinese Literature.

£200 to the Church Publishing Society of Tokyo for Japanese Literature.

£150 to the Rev. W. H. Murray Walton for the Japanese Newspaper Evangelisation.

£303 15*s.* 10*d.* in all for Cree, Eskimo and Takudh books supplied to Canadian Missions.

IN OTHER LANDS.

THIS section contains a summary of help given in money grants to dioceses overseas, apart from the work of the Foreign Literature Committee and the Medical Missions Committee, whose reports are elsewhere. The purposes are mainly for education, in many grades, and buildings, for people of our own race, and for people of many other races, within and without our Empire.

By the aid of Cannings Fund, a trust held by the Society and used for assisting the passages of missionaries going overseas for the first time, we are able to relieve many a Bishop, or his Commissary in this country, from part of the burden of passage money for his workers. The income of the trust is only £296, which is easily exhausted, and on many occasions the Standing Committee has recommended that it should be supplemented by a grant from the General Fund. £150 was voted for this purpose in 1927.

The past year has provided help for 33 new workers going to 23 dioceses, viz. Antigua, Bloemfontein (2), British Honduras, Bunbury, Chekiang, Corea, Dornakal, Grahamstown, Jerusalem, Kimberley and Kuruman (2), Lagos (2), Lahore, Lebombo (4), Madras, Masasi, Melanesia, the Niger, Northern Rhodesia (2), Nyasaland (2), Pretoria (2), S. John's, Kaffraria, Southern Rhodesia (2), and Zanzibar. The grants, varying from £15 to £30, amounted to £660.

Australia.

In another part of this book will be found some words about the need of more Voyage Chaplains on the ships carrying Empire settlers to Australia. In that way we are spending money nearly every week for the welfare of "Our Own People Going Overseas," and on account of the many big ships with large companies of passengers and no Chaplain we should like to expand our work in that direction.

We help also in the provision of clergy and of churches, but for some reason the grants have been below the average of recent years. There are, of course, many dioceses which would not ask for grants, but there are others which are receiving large numbers of new people from England, and they look for some help from us to provide ministrations of the Church for the new arrivals. "The World Call from Our Own People Overseas" reminds us of the responsibility for our folk who have gone to all parts of the world within and without the bounds of our Empire.

"What is needed for those at home is needed for those abroad. If churches and parsons and schools and sacraments are necessary at home, they are necessary abroad; they cannot be necessities in one place and luxuries in another. Is it fair play that the Church should first supply these spiritual necessities to those at home, using up all its endowments and most of its clergy, and then do what it can overseas as charity?"

We have responded to the extent of the requests and within the limits of available funds. It is true to say that the development of the Church in Australia is largely due to immense sums given by our Society in the past, and some return from the more prosperous places, by way of subscriptions and church collections, is welcome.

The Bishop of Carpentaria received £60 to assist an ordination candidate while at the Queensland University.

An additional grant of £30 to enable a student from North Queensland to complete his four years' course at Kelham was voted, and he will return to the diocese for ordination.

Ordination candidates in Bathurst and Bendigo were helped with £90 and £40 respectively.

The only building grants were for churches in Wangaratta and N.W. Australia, the amounts being £25 and £50.

New Zealand.

The Bishop of Dunedin sent one application on behalf of a student at Selwyn College in his diocese and received £60.

There was a request from the Bishop of Polynesia for help in connection with Indian schools at Labasa. He made it clear that there was an opportunity to be seized, and we hope that our promise of £250 will enable him "to redeem the time."

Canada and Newfoundland.

The total of grants has been £1,977, divided among eight dioceses of Canada and Newfoundland. The chief sum was £1,000 towards the Bishopric Endowment Fund of Caledonia. A grant from C.M.S. lapsed when the see became vacant by the death of Archbishop Du Vernet in 1924: this had been known, but no active steps appear to have been taken to build up an endowment, and the diocese remains without a Bishop until an adequate stipend has been secured.

The training of clergy has been assisted by grants for five men of Canadian birth, or of some years' residence in the country, in the dioceses of Moosonee, Edmonton, and Brandon.

Twelve grants have been promised for building churches in newly-settled districts or for Indian congregations in the dioceses of Caledonia, Cariboo, Edmonton, Qu'Appelle, Rupert's Land, Saskatchewan, and Newfoundland.

A grant of £250 was voted for the enlargement of the buildings of Queen's College, Newfoundland. An outlay of £6,500 is necessary to provide quarters for staff and 15 additional students, with chapel, library, kitchen, etc. Not for the first time we have responded to the needs of this College, and have been allowed to assist a development which has become an urgent necessity, if the missions of the diocese are to be adequately supplied with clergy.

There are schemes for the division of some dioceses in Canada, and the Society has already been approached about grants for endowment. No promises have been made at present, but when some progress has been made with money raised in Canada, our Society will receive a definite request. As grants for endowment have to be considerable in amount, our funds must be maintained that we may be in a position to respond.

Those who are observant of figures relating to migration within the Empire know that the number of British immigrants to Canada increases steadily, and we must be prepared to help the Church, which is active, through its Council of Social Service in all its dioceses, especially in the Middle West, to give a welcome to its new people.

West Indies.

This term is used here of the Province of the Church, and not in the usual geographical sense. Buildings and education are the objects of help.

The Archbishop of the West Indies asked for help concerning the Boys' Grammar School in Antigua. Started more than forty years ago as a private school, it has for twenty years been a diocesan school with certain rights reserved to the founder. These are about to lapse, and the diocese has to find a capital sum for purchase of furniture and equipment. Not for the first time in the history of this school our Society has promised its help, and £50 was voted for equipment, that the work of educating 66 boys may be maintained.

British Honduras has been celebrating the centenary of the building of S. John's Church, Belize, now used as the Cathedral. Restoration and enlargement had become necessary, and a grant of £70 was promised towards the building of a chapel. Our records show a grant when the church was built one hundred years ago. Other help to this diocese, which includes all the republics of Central America, provided scholarships at the Diocesan Schools for boys and girls in Belize and the building of two churches.

The diocese of Jamaica provides training for clergy at S. Peter's College, Kingston, and three men are receiving our help. Two building grants for churches were also given.

Three schools in Guiana received grants amounting to £120 for building purposes: one of these schools was assisted by S.P.C.K. at its foundation seventy years ago.

Other grants have been for scholarships at the Nassau Diocesan Western Schools for boys, and for a church in the Windward Islands, which is now separated from the diocese of Barbados and has its own Bishop.

Africa.

The total amount given to the work of the Church in this continent has been £4,366, mainly in the Province of S. Africa, and to eleven dioceses of that Province, while three dioceses in West Africa have also come to us for help.

In Capetown the removal of a native location to a new site has caused the abandonment of a large Mission School, and great expense has to be incurred to provide a new school, and later a church, on the new site at Langa. £200 was promised in reply to the Archbishop's application for help in a difficult situation. The provision of a school for non-European blind children at Athlone at a cost of £1,525 was assisted by a grant of £100.

Grants to Grahamstown were £590, of which £240 represented scholarships at the large native training college of S. Matthew at Keiskama Hoek, and £100 for enlarged buildings at the same place. The Warden of S. Matthew's College in sending help to the Society wrote: "I enclose a cheque for the usual collection on S. Mark's Day at the College Eucharist. I may say that it included a penny stamp in a piece of paper, which I know you will appreciate as worth while, as I am sure it is from a poor student."

These are the people who need our help in their training as teachers, and for years we have given that help to 20 students.

£200 was again voted for the Training College, Grahamstown, to assist 10 girls from several dioceses for future educational work in the schools and homes of South Africa.

The start of a large Secondary School at Modderpoort is contemplated, and the Society of the Sacred Mission, of Kelham, with its responsibility for native work in the diocese, is actively engaged in obtaining the money. The Bishop of Bloemfontein asked for our help towards this essential work and £150 was voted. A theological studentship of £60 and £100 for scholarships at Masite Training School were also given.

The grants for Johannesburg were £150 for S. Alban's Church, where a scheme for a large church approaches completion after much work and many years' efforts to raise the cost of a fine building; £120 for the men in training for ordination and for the work of catechists at S. Peter's College, Rosettenville, and £50 for a student sent to S. Paul's College, Grahamstown, to prepare for Holy Orders.

The grants for S. John's, Kaffraria, include each year help for several small churches and schools—indications of new work in fresh places which will in time become strong mission stations. Six grants of this kind appear this year, and other help has been the renewal of scholarships at S. Bede's College, Umtata, for native clergy and catechists, and at the Augusta School for Girls, Engcobo.

The Bishop of Zululand looks to us year by year for maintenance of education at S. Augustine's Industrial School, Rorke's Drift, where Archdeacon Johnson and his wife for nearly fifty years have been carrying on a training for men and boys, women and girls, on a constantly increasing scale. The Archdeacon writes that without S.P.C.K. the work could not have been done. £50 was voted.

£140 for training teachers and catechists at various intermediate schools, and a few building grants are included in our list of promises, which must be met at early dates.

The usual grants of £50 for scholarships at S. Faith's, Rusape, and £150 for the same purpose at S. Augustine's, Penhalonga, in the diocese of Southern Rhodesia were renewed by the Bishop's request.

Three colleges in Natal received the usual scholarships, amounting to £120, for teachers in training, for native girls and for clergy.

The Bishop of Pretoria, who acted as a Voyage Chaplain on his return to S. Africa this year, asked for continuance of help for Grace Dieu College, Pietersburg, and £372 was voted as in past years. Other grants were £40 for a theological student at S. Paul's College, Grahamstown, and £18 for children at Khaiso School.

One grant to Kimberley and Kuruman for enlarging a church at Upington was the only help for which we were asked, and £40 was voted.

The Bishop of Lebombo received £50 for the new buildings of S. Christopher's College, Hlamankulu, and £37 10*s.* for scholarships, £25 for a school at Masiyeni, and £60 for a candidate for ordination to be trained at S. Paul's College, Grahamstown.

The Bishop of Damaraland has a diocese about six times the size of the British Isles, and scattered communities of Church people numbering about 2,000. The diocese is young, having been created in 1924 as a missionary diocese of the Province of South Africa; the clergy are few, and the churches are on an average 350 miles apart. There is no endowment, and the expenses of the diocese are inadequately met by help from the Province and S.P.G., and from such other grants as may be obtained from various sources. It is not surprising that the need of an endowment grant to provide the Bishop's stipend was brought to our Society's notice, and £1,000, to meet not less than £9,000 from other sources for investment, was voted in July.

The grants for W. Africa included £90 for two men at S. Augustine's College, Kumasi, in the diocese of Accra, £50 for evangelists in training at Awka on the Niger, and £145 for training in the diocese of Lagos.

Outside the continent of Africa, but conveniently included in this section, there was £30 for S. Paul's College in the diocese of Madagascar, and the Bishop of Mauritius had £60 for enlarging S. Paul's College, with £50 for scholarships for clergy in training, and £20 for a church in the Seychelles.

This completes the tale of help for Africa, with Madagascar and Mauritius, and it can be asserted that there is not less than the usual variety. New work has been helped and old work has been maintained; work which we assisted at the start has been developed, and our help has been sought again. Response is made possible by the continued gifts of Church people, who in increasing numbers recognise the meaning of what is now known to them as the Call of the World, and not least the call of Africa.

India.

Twelve dioceses have received help for buildings and education. Some of the grants for education were for Schools not previously assisted, and the requests arose apparently from the need of help for European and Anglo-Indian children, whose parents can ill afford the fees for a boarding school.

S. Paul's School, Darjeeling, in the diocese of Calcutta, received £200, being £100 a year for two years to help eight boys in need of assistance. This is a large school, increasing in numbers, whereby a building temporarily used as a chapel is needed for other purposes. Plans have been drawn for a permanent chapel, and the fund is being strongly supported by the old boys, but the Metropolitan made it clear that some outside help must be obtained, and £200 was promised towards an expenditure of £3,750.

Another building grant was £100 for the new buildings of S. James' School, Calcutta.

The Bishop of Bombay also asked for some help for European and Anglo-Indian boys in the school at Mt. Abu, where the fees are beyond the ability of the parents. £54 was voted to assist three boys for a year. £21 was renewed for S. Saviour's School, Ahmednagar.

Madras is a diocese having very early connections with our Society, which was promoting missionary work in its area long before there was any Bishop in India. A grant of £200 administered by the Diocesan Committee to aid the training of Indian clergy and the higher education of girls was renewed; likewise £150 for Colleges and High Schools distributed by the Diocesan Board of Education. Other grants were £60 for the boys of the Bishop Cotton School, Bangalore, £32 for All Saints' Industrial School, Trichinopoly, and a building grant of £50 for a Tamil church at Golden Rock, Trichinopoly, a need arising from the transfer to that place of a considerable number of railway employees.

Help for six new churches in Tinnevelly was one request, and £250 was voted for allocation by the Bishop. £200 for College and High School scholarships, £100 for girls at Sarah Tucker College, Palamcottah, and S. John's High School, Nazareth, and £100 for the help of S. John's Industrial School, Nazareth, were also allowed, and a medical studentship of £30.

The usual grants of £60 and £160 for the training of clergy and catechists at the Diocesan College, Kottayam, in Travancore and Cochin were renewed.

The only grant for Dornakal, apart from assistance for a dispensary recorded elsewhere, was £18 for men in training at Bishop Heber College, Trichinopoly.

The first request from Dr. Kennedy, the new Bishop of Chota Nagpur, was for a church at Kandara, for which £100 was allowed.

Scholarships for four schools in Nagpur, to assist the children of Anglo-Indian parents, were renewed at £132.

Lucknow received again £60 for the pupils of S. John's College and School, Agra, while a new grant was £56 for four Christian students in S. Andrew's College, Gorakpur.

From Lahore came yet another request for fresh help for Christian students at S. Stephen's College, Delhi, and £48 was voted to help four men for one year. The grant of £122 for four schools of the Cambridge Mission to Delhi was renewed.

The Bishop of Assam wished to provide a school where some of his clergy and catechists could assemble from time to time for instruction: £35 was allowed towards the cost of the building.

There were three grants for Rangoon. At Maymyo there is an Indian congregation which has hitherto used the European church, but needs its own building: £75 was allowed.

For education £30 was voted to assist the Divinity Training School at Kemendine and £160 for the training of Karen clergy and catechists at Toungoo.

Persia.

It is not often that the Society is asked to help in Persia, but Bishop Linton made two appeals this year, for the building of a church, for which £50 was voted, and for a large boys' school, for which £300 was allowed, both in the Moslem city of Kerman.

The Far East.

The diocese of Singapore includes in its huge area the kingdom of Siam, and Bangkok is, we believe, the only Anglican Mission station. S. Mary's School for girls was helped again with £48 for scholarships.

Disturbed conditions in parts of China have probably reduced the requests for help, and one looks forward to improved conditions and the reoccupation of missions which have had to be left by the European and other workers. It is a time of testing for the Chinese Christians in the disturbed areas, and our hope is that they will gain strength in their trial.

The Bishop in Fukien asked for help to train a Chinese girl for future Church work, and £60 was granted to cover a period of three years in the Divinity School at Peking.

An interesting application from the Bishop in North China was for the building of a church for a Japanese congregation at Dairen, S. Manchuria. A church-room built some fifteen years ago for a small white congregation was inadequate, and a considerable Japanese congregation had grown up in this naval port. The Bishop's letter included the following particulars:—

"The Rev. H. Hibberd found almost accidentally that there were a few Japanese Church people (members of the Nippon Seikokwai) amongst the immigrants in Dairen and Port Arthur. With the aid of an English friend he secured the services of a Japanese catechist, Mr. Okagaki, in 1913. He himself learnt enough of the language to be able to celebrate intelligibly when using a Romaji Prayer-book. By 1916 the tiny Japanese congregation was already growing, contributing something to the catechist's support, and paying a small sum for the use of the English church-room.

"The next year we began discussing the possibility of Mr. Okagaki's ordination. Much correspondence and delay ensued, and it was 1919 before the matter was settled. Then Mr. Okagaki's health broke down, and I had my first insight into Japanese generosity. The congregation paid the whole of his hospital expenses and gave him three months' rest at a cost of some £80. In 1920 he was ordained deacon, the Dairen Japanese congregation undertaking to find his stipend. In 1922 they built a parsonage house for him, and he was ordained priest. In 1924, to my great sorrow, he died, and the congregation contributed enough money to pension his widow for life, with some £50 a year.

"Now they have a priest once more, Mr. Shimada, who has been transferred to Dairen from Bishop Motoda's diocese, the congregation, of course, paying him. During the interregnum we have only managed to give them occasional celebrations, mostly in English, but I myself and the Rev. S. G. Teakle of Tientsin, who went there three or four times, were immensely struck with the keenness of the congregation, which made it a delight to minister to them. This is the congregation which is now calling for a new church; and which, to prove its earnestness in the matter, has subscribed over £2,200 towards the cost. Their numbers are returned as 'about 150, steadily increasing year by year.' The present church-room holds about 60 (having, alas! been extravagantly furnished with English pews!). The ordinary number of communicants is between 50 and 60, and the Sunday School has well over 100 children."

A grant of £250 was promised towards an expenditure of £3,000.

The only other grant for China was £200 towards the new buildings of the Boys' School, Ping-yin, in the diocese of Shantung.

£50 was given towards the enlargement of a church at Pao Tai Ri in Corea, where the people had promised labour and half the cost, but altered financial conditions and increased cost made them unable to complete the task without some help.

Four dioceses in Japan have had assistance. Three churches in Kobé had £300, one of them having to be rebuilt after considerable damage by earthquake.

The Bishop in Kyu-Shu made two applications for Fukuoka, where he is building—literally as architect, clerk of works, purchaser of material, etc.—a central church for which £300 was allowed, and a training school for evangelists. The school was started in the Bishop's house, where it remained for several years; a separate building was then provided, and is now inadequate for the number of students. £43 has been voted towards enlargement.

£100 was voted for the training of a student from Osaka, who had been sent to England for this purpose, but ill-health in our climate compelled his return to Japan, where he hopes to continue his training for the ministry.

The diocese of Hokkaido has an inadequate stipend for an English Bishop and the see has been vacant. The Bishop in S. Tokyo, who has administered the diocese, asked if S.P.C.K. would provide some temporary help for this purpose. Though this is not a usual form of help from our funds, except by endowment grants, the Committee felt that the circumstances were such that an exception should be made, and £50 a year for three years was promised.

MEDICAL MISSION WORK.

THE greater part of our help for medical mission work has again been given for the training of doctors. This is a continuation of the policy of recent years, and is recognised by other Societies as our contribution to keep up the supply of doctors for the hospitals which these other Societies provide and maintain.

The medical students, whom we help with the expenses of their training, are the provisionally accepted candidates of the Societies by which they will be subsequently employed. The grants are large in amount, but it must be remembered that they cover a period of five or six years in many cases: payment is made quarterly on certificates of attendance and progress at the medical schools. A guarantee of payment by some responsible person on behalf of the candidate is required, in case of failure to obtain a medical qualification and to give at least three years' service in a mission hospital of the Church.

The grants voted have been less in their total amount than in some recent years, but this is probably only a temporary reduction.

The amount promised included £1,260, providing help for five new students recommended by S.P.G., C.M.S., C.E.Z.M.S., Church Mission to the Jews, and the Melanesian Mission, all of whom are taking their training in this country.

A further sum of £1,180 was granted to five students for the completion of their training, delayed in some cases by illness, and in others by some failure in an examination—both causes for sympathy, encouragement and further help, that time and money already spent may not be wasted!

The Bishops of Madras, Tinnevelly and Chota Nagpur asked for help to three Indian students, for whom £265 was promised.

The Bishop of Fukien recommended for help two Chinese students, the sons of clergymen in his diocese. The present troubles in China may introduce a doubt whether these men will be able to serve as missionary doctors, but it would be lack of faith not to be preparing for a happier future, and opportunities of service. £200 was promised to provide £20 for each student for a period of five years.

For hospital work grants have been £110 only. This sum includes £40 for maintenance of the dispensary work at Dornakal under an Indian doctor whom our Society helped to train; £50 was an addition to £200 promised some years back for a hospital at Malacca in the diocese of Singapore, the cost having exceeded the estimate, and £20 for the equipment of a dispensary in a crowded native suburb of Johannesburg.

The various items given in the preceding paragraphs amount to £3,015, of which details will be found on p. 54.

Here is the place for an appeal to our supporters and their friends for a considerable addition to special gifts for the training of men and women, at home and overseas, who are ready to serve as doctors, who have been tested in matters of character and intellect and vocation for the work and found to be suitable, but whose progress is barred unless they can obtain considerable financial help.

S.P.C.K. many years ago agreed in conference with other Societies that its contribution to this work of healing the sick, in the Church's missions, should be mainly devoted to training doctors. We have not failed to fulfil our part of the bargain, but we have sometimes been restrained from giving help on a desirable scale because funds for this particular bit of work were not sufficient.

Once again we make an appeal, and not without some confidence, for earmarked contributions increase year by year, but the tide has not yet begun to run at flood strength.

Ladies' Association (in aid of Medical Missions). Here is the source of the greater part of our special gifts for medical mission work. An energetic band of ladies, who pass their previous best record year by year, raised £365 15*s.* 1*d.* by subscriptions and sale of work. The Sale in the Society's Board Room in October is an annual demonstration of effort and many hours of preparation, which provides an increasing amount yearly. £100 was the aim a few years back: now that has been passed, and £142 13*s.* 8*d.* was the figure for the past year.

Dr. Bazeley, from the Cambridge Mission to Delhi, whom we helped as a student, came and gave us some account of her work. She laid emphasis on the importance of the itinerary work in the villages. This established contact with the people, who were slow to undertake a visit to the hospitals as in-patients, but their attitude soon changed when they recognised workers in the hospital who had already visited them in their own villages.

The Committee of the Ladies' Association wish to increase their range of support: workers for the Sale and collectors of small subscriptions are sought. A report is sent each year to all subscribers of not less than 1*s.*

Miss Duval (37 Talbot Road, Highgate, N. 6) is the Hon. Secretary, and will be glad to supply information. Parcels for the Annual Sale, marked "Ladies' Association Sale," may be sent at any time c/o S.P.C.K. House, Northumberland Avenue, W.C. 2.

Foreign Postage Stamps. Miss Duval is glad to hear from collectors, who may wish to buy stamps or who may be good enough to send her any duplicates which they can spare, that she may sell them for the benefit of medical mission work.

THE PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT.

THE trading operations of the Society for the year ending 31st March, 1927, resulted in a loss of £2,894. Ever since 1921–2 the annual results had shown a very rapid movement towards recovery, and the loss in 1925–6 was reduced to one-ninth what it was in the former years. In the past year, however, we were caught by the universal trade depression occasioned by the big strike, and we have had to share in the calamity.

In certain branches of publishing the advantages derived from the larger editions absorbed by the new reading public compensate for the handicap imposed by the huge increase in cost of production. Unfortunately this does not apply to theology, nor even to popular religious books, because the clergy who read theology and recommend the popular books are at present a diminishing quantity. We have therefore more than ever to look narrowly at every book offered from the financial point of view, to broaden our horizon and to reach the largest number of readers. This we are doing energetically, and no efforts are spared by the Committee and permanent staff to run the business on the most modern and efficient lines, but the task of making both ends meet during the year under review was beyond their powers. With the turn of the tide of general trade S.P.C.K. can hardly fail to go forward with the rest.

Books are luxuries to most people and are among the first things to be retrenched in hard times. S.P.C.K. was handicapped, too, by the Prayer Book situation. Sales of the old Book (an important part of our trade) have for the time practically ceased. No improvement in this respect can be expected until the matter is definitely settled one way or the other, and it is unlikely to take much effect during the current year.

As usual in recent years, many good books have been published. It is unnecessary to say much about them here because the Literary Bulletin describing the Society's publishing output has been distributed so widely. It will be sufficient to mention a few. Two handbooks of instruction have been issued—My Faith, by Canon Storr, published for the Anglican Evangelical Group Movement (1*s.*), and A Catechism of Christian Faith and Practice (2*d.*), published for the E.C.U. Needless to say, in accepting such books the Literature Committee does not take responsibility for the details of the teaching given. A composite book on Confirmation (8*s.* 6*d.*), by twelve different authors, is an attempt to gather into one volume descriptions of all the methods of preparation employed in the English Church to-day. A new edition of Eusebius' Ecclesiastical History, by Dean Lawlor and Mr. Oulton (2 vols., 10*s.* 6*d.* each), is a great boon to scholars. New Lives of St. Hugh of Lincoln and St. Bernard of Clairvaux, by Drs. Woolley and Watkin Williams (7*s.* 6*d.* each), incorporate a great deal of research.

To the Historic Monuments series important additions have been made in The Painted Glass of York by F. Harrison (12*s.* 6*d.*) and English Monumental Sculpture (10*s.* 6*d.*), by Mrs. Esdaile.

A popular Life of St. Paul—The Bondman of the Lord (cheap edition, 2*s.* 6*d.*)—has been published in conjunction with the Church of England Sunday School Institute. This continues the co-operation so happily begun by the Church and School Hymnal. A joint Committee of the two Societies is considering the question of further publications in the field of religious education.

The Sheldon Press books include an art monograph of real importance in Paolo Veronese, by P. H. Osmond (25*s.*); a summary of recent research on The Stone Age, by E. O. James (3*s.* 6*d.*); and a charming little book on Jean François Millet, by Mrs. Leslie Thomson (2*s.* 6*d.*). The Sheldon Press fiction on the autumn list for 1927 contains as many as thirty-one items, including eight twopenny boys' adventure stories, in which the Society reverts to its nineteenth-century practice of providing wholesome literature at a nominal price.

The accounts for the year will be found on p. 82, and a complete list of works published on pp. 231–246.

CHURCH LITERATURE FOR THE BLIND.

THE work of the Braille Department is increasing rapidly, and the requests received daily for copies of books—to a very great extent of a religious character—and the very appreciative letters from readers of our Braille Magazine, are a practical proof of the usefulness of the Department and of the need for the literature it issues—such books being especially valued, as they help to form a personal library and have not to be returned after perusal, as is the case with books from an ordinary library.

Two important Braille publications this year are the English Hymnal, issued in 14 parts at 1*s.* each part or 10*s.* the set, and a reprint of the Psalter, which are both enjoying a very good sale. The English Hymnal has been awarded a very appreciative welcome, which alone is a witness of the pleasure it gives and the need for its publication.

Since April of this year we have received a large number of orders. Thirty-six books, several of which run into four and five and even more volumes, have already been finished or are nearing completion, whilst there is a considerable number on our waiting list. These do not include books which are put into stock. Every now and then we get a call for hand-written books of any kind we can supply, and it is always a difficult matter in the stress of work to keep a good stock in hand.

Amongst the books for which orders have been sent may be mentioned: One Thousand Questions in General Knowledge —6 volumes—required for a Blind School; Naturalism and Antagonism—12 volumes—ordered by a Japanese student, who has likewise requested us to supply him with Tracts on the Creed in Braille.

Our Braille Magazine, The Church Messenger, plays a very important part in the literature required for our blind community. It has to-day a circulation of 215 copies, and from every direction come letters expressing both appreciation and pleasure in being able to have such a periodical.

The cost is 12*s.* per annum, post free, and thanks to the generosity shown by our reading public we are in a position to issue it free of charge to a large number of blind readers who are unable to pay for themselves.

Lately we put an appeal in the S.P.C.K. Quarterly Record, and the result was most gratifying; in consequence we were able to let several blind folk have the Magazine who otherwise would have been disappointed for lack of subscriptions. The gratitude expressed by these readers shows how deeply the generosity of such subscribers is appreciated.

One serial, which forms an important part of The Church Messenger, is at the present time "How to Enjoy the Bible," by Canon Anthony Deane, and here again time after time letters are received expressing the great interest shown in this all-important subject; and the same may be said of a second serial, namely, "Short Lives of the Saints."

Many of our readers are deaf-blind, and these are not by any means the least appreciative of our blind community.

We must not forget to mention the invaluable assistance given by our voluntary writers, and we are pleased to say that several more volunteers have come forward lately and offered their services; but there is plenty of work to be done, and more writers will receive a cordial welcome, especially as the demand for books is increasing.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Founders' Day Anniversary, March 8.—The Dean and Chapter of Westminster Abbey allowed us the use of their church for a Choral Eucharist: there was a congregation large enough to encourage us to hope that this may be established as a regular part of our annual commemoration. The Bishop of S. Tokyo preached, and gave an account of the interesting evangelisation work being carried on through the advertising columns of the Japanese newspapers. Enquiries from readers are growing in number beyond all expectation, and while the work is under the supervision of a missionary of C.M.S., it was a grant from S.P.C.K. which gave it a start.

The afternoon meeting at the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, was not well attended. The Archbishop of Canterbury spoke on the special departments of care for Empire Settlers, literature for the Mission field, and the training of missionary doctors—all worthy of greater support.

Bishop Chatterton, lately of Nagpur, spoke of the needs of the Church in India which are supplied by our Society.

Sir Godfrey Lagden, K.C.M.G., formerly Commissioner for Native Affairs, Transvaal, speaking from a wide experience as an administrator in Africa, said that there had been a notable change of thought among white people in regard to native missions, and a change had taken place in the thought of the native people, who were eager to learn the truth and to improve their conditions of life.

The Bishop of Damaraland preached at a brief Thanksgiving Service at S. Martin-in-the-Fields after tea.

Gifts throughout the day for the supply of Church literature for the Mission field were about £250.

Vice-Presidents.—The Bishops of Brechin, Dover, Edmonton, Guildford, Kwangsi-Hunan, Newfoundland, and Polynesia have become Vice-Presidents of the Society.

Standing Committee.—There were six vacancies due to seniority of service. The Rev. E. S. Duval, Canon A. F. Evans, the Rev. M. G. Haigh, and Mr. C. F. J. Jennings were re-elected, and the other places were filled by the election of Mr. F. W. Sturley and Mr. R. Swinson. The Finance and other Committees will be found on pp. 57–59.

Monthly General Meetings.—An appeal for attendance must be addressed mainly to our members in or near London. We should like, however, to remind others, who may be in town on a first Tuesday in the month, except August and September, that they will be welcome. Speakers at these meetings have been the Bishop of B. Honduras, the Bishops in Kyu-Shu and S. Tokyo, the Bishop of Willochra, the Archdeacon of Singapore, Archdeacon Hancock (lately of Brazil), Canon Hester (from Aklavik, in the far north of Canada, among the Eskimos) and the Rev. C. Redman (from Madagascar). This list suggests a variety of information from many parts of the world.

New Members.—Our records show that 229 names of new annual subscribers were added by election at the Monthly Meetings. The number is not sufficient to fill all the gaps due to death and other causes, and the result is apt to be a falling income from the most reliable source of support. May we enlist the help of our members to bring in new annual subscribers? The names and addresses of likely supporters may be sent to the Secretaries, if a personal appeal cannot be made.

Endowment Subscriptions.—Our Treasurers have again acknowledged several capital gifts for investment, whereby the annual subscriptions of members have been made a permanent benefit to the funds. The Secretaries will be glad to answer any inquiries on this matter, and to supply particulars of the correct method of transfer of investments where this is more convenient than a cash payment.

Income Tax Recoverable.—Several of our members have signed the form of agreement to subscribe for seven years, whereby S.P.C.K. is able to recover income tax on the amount of subscriptions (if paid out of taxable income), with the result that £1 1*s.* becomes to the Society £1 6*s.* 3*d.* at the present rate of tax. The plan does not involve any increased payment by the subscriber: the tax which he has already paid on his usual subscription is recovered by the Society. The Secretaries will be glad to supply particulars and the form of agreement for signature. The agreement does not create any charge on the estate of a subscriber who should die within seven years.

Parish Magazine Inset.—There has been an increasing demand for this free pamphlet for insertion in Parish Magazines in March and September. Supporting parishes have been supplied with more than 350,000 copies half-yearly. At what cost? With what result? The reply to the first question is about £400, and to the second, that parochial support went up by £800 in the past year. The ratio of cost to profit is high at present, but it is not without encouragement in the experimental stage, and indicates that information to readers of the Parish Magazines leads to increased gifts. One result has been that our Port Chaplains have received several letters about travellers from writers who have seen in their magazines that S.P.C.K. cares for Empire Settlers. This is all to the good if it has helped to break down something of the difficulty which has surrounded the use of commendatory letters.

Organising Work and Missionary Exhibitions.—These are dealt with in a separate section (p. 39). Here, however, we must put a word of thanks to many voluntary workers, and a request for articles of an attractive character for exhibitions.

Lay Workers' College.—Past students have held reunions at High Leigh and at Chester, with the pleasure of recalling past days in Stepney.

When the College in Commercial Road, E., was closed, arrangements were made for a small expenditure by the Society each year for gatherings of the past students. Their gratitude shows that the right thing was done to maintain the brotherhood and the membership of the College.

S. Katharine's College, Tottenham.—There is no particular matter for report this year, as there has been no development of buildings or of playing-fields as in recent years. This does not mean that the College has been at a standstill! The report of the Principal shows that much has been going on, and that within the College walls there is constant activity of mind and body.

Dame Helen Gwynne Vaughan addressed the students and visitors at the College Assembly on June 11.

1928 is being looked forward to, for it marks the fiftieth year since the foundation of the College, and thought is already being given to plans for a festive Saturday in June.

The following extracts from the Principal's Report give some information which will interest those who regard the work of our College as a necessary contribution to the religious training of teachers. S.P.C.K. has spent not much less than £100,000, or thereabouts, on land and buildings for College and practising schools, finds £500 a year and some other part of their maintenance. The final paragraph of the Principal's Report suggests that the day is not far distant when the Society will have to contribute even more extensively.

The number of Students at the beginning of the year was 128 (including 7 Day Students)—68 in the Second Year and 60 in the First Year.

The Examination in Religious Knowledge was held on April 7th. The Examiner appointed by the Theological Department of King's College, London, was the Rev. R. Tasker, Lecturer and Tutor, King's College. He sent a helpful and detailed report on the Students' work; his introductory paragraph is as follows:—"It has been very interesting to me to examine the Students of S. Katharine's College, and I am glad to be able to return a favourable report. The work shows quite clearly that the teaching is on sound and modern lines, and the very marked difference in the standard shown by the first and second year Students shows that the Students make very real progress during their stay at the College. Most of the work was of a good second-class standard, and very few students failed to reach a Pass Standard."

The final result of the Second Year Students on the First and Second Year Papers was:—First Class, 16; Second Class, 36; Third Class, 15.

In addition to the subjects in which examinations have been held, the Students have attended classes on the Prayer Book, the Communion Service and the Principles and Methods of giving Religious Instruction to children.

During the year about 20 Students have regularly taken classes on Sunday afternoons at S. Hilda's Sunday School. The College is now in S. Hilda's Parish and the Students are glad to give this much needed help to a new parish until it has raised its own body of Sunday School teachers.

In June 1926, the constitution of the Council was altered, when the Standing Committee accepted the suggestion that the Council should be enlarged to not more than 18 members. The Council in suggesting this alteration was alive to the importance of there being more women members on the Governing Body of a Women's College, and as a result, during this year, Lady Trustram Eve, Miss Thesiger and Miss Dawson have joined the Council.

There have been the usual visits of H.M. Inspectors during the year to see the work of the Students in Teaching, Drawing, Science, Needlework, Handwork and Drill. No written reports have been received, but again satisfaction was expressed and the classification adopted by the College was confirmed.

In our Chapel Services we have again had the privilege of hearing a number of special preachers. On Ash Wednesday (March 2nd) the Bishop of Willesden held a Confirmation Service in the Chapel, when three of the First Year Students were confirmed. We are specially grateful to the Bishop for coming to us at a time when he had much additional work.

February 15th–18th the College joined in the London Campaign in connection with the Student Christian movement. "The Rev. F. C. Taylor Hawkes, then Rector of Lambeth, now Bishop of Kingston, was our Campaigner. There were daily celebrations of Holy Communion and each evening Mr. Hawkes gave an address in Chapel. Both in these addresses and also in interviews and discussions he dealt with some of the difficulties felt by those of Student age with regard to religion. Some of these are doubtless disquieting and serious, but their very existence is eloquent of the fact of the great and vital interest in our Universities and Colleges in things higher than those which are 'of the earth earthy.' Those older people who were at the great final meeting at the Queen's Hall will indeed thank God and take courage." (Extract from the Chaplain's Report in the College Magazine.)

The Chapel Offertories during the year amounted to £81 3*s.* 7*d.* and donations amounting to £69 10*s.* 6*d.* have been sent to various charities. Interest in Missionary work has been maintained and in the year ending December, 1926, grants amounting to £80 were made.

The College Assembly was held on June 11th when Professor Dame Helen Gwynne Vaughan gave a vigorous and helpful address to the Students.

It has been decided to hold the College Jubilee Celebration on June 16th, 1928. The Bishop of London has promised to be with us and a thanksgiving service will be held in the Tottenham Parish Church. It is hoped to complete the oak panelling of the Chapel as a memorial of this landmark in the history of the College ; the cost will be approximately £325, of which we have £117 in hand.

The College is this year indebted to the Central Board of Finance for a grant of £240, and to the S.P.C.K. for a grant of £500. The financial position of the College calls for serious consideration in the near future in the light of the fact that in the year 1927–28 the Board of Education proposes to stabilise the capital grant in respect of Training Colleges at £60 a year per Student. This means a decrease in the receipts of the College, and it is difficult to say where substantial retrenchment can be made if the efficiency of the College is to be maintained, We are again faced by the fact pointed out in the Departmental Report on the Training of Teachers, that a small College is an expensive one to maintain, and this is specially so in the case of a London College in a highly-rated district.

ORGANISING AND PROPAGANDA.

A SUMMARY of the year's work, comments and suggestions are supplied in the following pages, being extracts from a full report prepared by the Central Organising Secretary.

The subjects dealt with come roughly under the headings: (1) Staff. (2) Work accomplished during the year. (3) Finance. (4) Propaganda.

(1) Staff.—In the districts there have been considerable changes owing to redistribution and a change of policy. The Rev. H. W. Baumann and the Rev. C. E. D. Crane have ceased work for us in the dioceses of Manchester and Bradford respectively, while the Rev. R. F. Cardale and the Rev. A. L. Wordsworth have resigned their positions in the dioceses of York and Carlisle respectively owing to acceptance of work elsewhere. We are glad to think that Mr. Wordsworth, one of our Diocesan Secretaries, has found it possible to offer his services overseas, and left England in July for the diocese of Pretoria.

Further, we have lost the services of the Rev. T. Robinson in the Southern District and the Rev. B. J. Jones in the Western, both of whom have accepted other work; and the Rev. F. M. Haughton in the Lichfield diocese has given up his work as part-time Secretary in view of the appointment of a full-time Secretary for the Midlands.

Two new Secretaries, the Rev. V. F. Hambling and the Rev. C. H. Donne, have been appointed for the Midland and Southern districts respectively.

South Wales has been found a difficulty and it has been felt necessary to separate it from the four English dioceses previously managed with it. It may be that later on we shall be able to have a full-time Secretary for the whole Province of Wales, but the time is not yet ripe. We have adopted the temporary expedient of appointing a parish priest in each of the four dioceses in South Wales to act as our representative in return for a very small honorarium.

In the Northern Province, in view of the increased work laid upon the shoulders of the Rev. F. C. C. Atkin, a full-time clerk has been given to him in Miss Smith, who has, since her appointment on the 1st January of this year, given splendid help, not only in the office, but also as a lecturer. Mr. Atkin leaves in November for the parish of Darnall, Sheffield, after three and a half years' strenuous work in a huge area, for which we give him hearty thanks.

Overseas in Australia we are having the help of the Rev. A. E. Kain, Rector of St. John's, Salisbury, S. Australia, who is doing his best to work up our interests. He has already received a warm welcome from the Bishops and diocesan authorities, and writes most hopefully of gaining increased support for the Society in Australia.

Among our R. D. Secretaries it is obvious that there must, every year, be considerable change.

During the past year 56 of our R. D. Secretaries have given up their work for us, at any rate in their old spheres—53 through removal to other parishes and 3 through death. Twenty-one of these vacancies have been filled by other appointments, and there have been 34 appointments to Rural Deaneries in which the Society was not previously represented.

At the present moment throughout the country we have 570 R. D. Secretaries, while there are still 295 deaneries without a representative. This would seem to be a matter which needs serious consideration in view of schemes of reorganisation or propaganda. While of course it must be a source of weakness that nearly 300 deaneries, 210 of which are in the Province of Canterbury, 53 in the Province of York, and 28 in Wales, have no one representing S.P.C.K., yet it is likewise a matter for serious consideration that there is a considerable number of the 570 occupied deaneries where very little active work is being accomplished. I would stress the point that in efforts towards progress and increased support our thoughts must largely turn towards strengthening the hands of our Secretaries in the deaneries.

(2) Work Accomplished.—(a) One of the matters to which we have given some attention during the year is that of the representation of the Society on the various Diocesan Boards of Missions. It is felt that in view of the increasing importance of the Society's work it is imperative that we should strive towards direct representation on such bodies. No uniform plan can be adopted, as every diocese appears to have a different method and constitution; but I would point out that out of 44 dioceses we are now allowed a place on the Councils of 16 ex officio, in 3 our District Secretary has been co-opted, in 5 he has been elected as such, and in 1 we are represented not by our official Secretary, but by another. We are therefore represented officially on the Councils of 25 dioceses out of 44.

(b) Passing to another sphere, there have been 615 sermons preached on behalf of the Society, 530 by our official representatives, 85 by others. These sermons, of course, have not all been preached on Sundays, but it is clear that our full-time Secretaries have been kept busy, and that not a little Sunday work too has been done by those part-time men who also have parochial charges.

Of Meetings on our behalf there has been a total of 360, almost equally divided between the Northern and Southern with Welsh Provinces. All except 4 that we know of have been addressed by our own officials.

Big Central Meetings.—Again there have been held at York and Leeds Central Meetings on a large scale. These have now been held for several years and have come to be regarded as an institution. It is reported that the interests of the Society are greatly enhanced and that real status is given thereby. It would be good, in my opinion, if efforts were made in suitable centres in other dioceses and districts to hold such Central Meetings, and I suggest that it would be in the interests of Promoting Christian Knowledge if the subjects taken at such meetings might be of a wider nature than those usually found at a Missionary Meeting.

It will be well, I think, at this point to express our gratitude to all those who are not officers of the Society who have preached and spoken for us during the past year either at invitation or on their own initiative.

I cannot help thinking that where our R. D. Secretaries are, or may be, really active we should find more of the parochial clergy speaking and preaching for us than do now. This could be arranged, as indeed it has been arranged in some places, by exchange of pulpits or otherwise, and it is worth considering how this plan may be further developed, particularly in the country areas, where it would be financially impossible to send a Deputation.

Annual Meeting.—The matter of the Anniversary and Annual Meeting of the Society on Founders' Day has, I believe, been exercising the thoughts of our authorities for some years. We were able to make a new venture this year by holding a Choral Eucharist in Westminster Abbey, a move which has been felt by all to be an effort in the right direction. I would suggest as worthy of consideration that Anniversary Meetings and Services might well be promoted in provincial centres as well as in London. Cumulative effect would be of importance in every way.

(c) Lantern Slides and Lectures.—We have had a fair number of applications for the loan of Lantern Slides with Lecture Notes apart from those undertaken by our own Secretaries.

Lantern Lectures given during the year ending March, 1927, numbered altogether 47. Of these 47, 29 were based on the notes supplied by Headquarters, 13 being given by our own Secretaries, and 16 by others. Sixteen Lantern Lectures, all in the Southern Province, were given by our own Secretaries on their own private notes, mostly with the Society's slides.

It seems to me that if we are to continue to press this side of our work there is room for considerable development and improvement. Our Lectures must be constantly getting out of date, and the slides want revising and more pictures adding. Old material either in slides or in Lecture notes cannot be good for the reputation of the Society, while it takes more than the capacity of any one person to compose the necessary material in such a varied field.

(d) Exhibitions.—We have been enabled by the invitation mainly of S.P.G. and C.M.S. to participate in 9 Missionary Exhibitions.

(3) Finance.—There was an increase in Subscriptions of £360 this year compared with an increase of £72 of the previous year over 1925. In donations there was an increase of £783 compared with an increase of £169 in 1926 over 1925. Under the heading of Church Collections, which is peculiarly indicative of our Secretaries' work, there was an increase of £680 this year compared with a loss of £42 in 1926 from the total in 1925. From all sources, therefore, Subscriptions, Donations, and Church Collections, there has been a substantial gain. While the year 1926 showed an increase over 1925 of £200, 1927 exceeds 1926 by £1,824. We are well able, therefore, to encourage ourselves by the figures that have been given. At the same time we cannot be content.

While I am convinced that we can still get a large increase in support from parishes through Church Collections, yet modern systems of Church finance are putting such a pressure on parishes by quotas of all sorts that Societies are hard put to it to get an entry. We have to turn our thoughts to means of raising money other than through collections. One new system, employed with considerable profit in the experience of some, has been started in our Society. The Birthday Cake scheme in connection with our Founders' Day was advertised and was pressed in some places. Where this was done the idea was readily taken up. Thirteen new parishes undertook to work it and produced a total of close on £40—all new money. I am sure much more might be done in that direction.

(4) Propaganda.—The subject of propaganda is wide, and I think that it is worthy of more concerted consideration than would appear to have been given to it. Advertisement is the spirit of the present time, and the methods of advertisement have been so changed that there is a great danger of being left behind and failing to attract. The study of psychology is the vogue at present, and effective advertisement and propaganda is based on that science. We have to consider such matters as our Subscribers' Appeal, Parochial Appeal, general Leaflets, Diocesan Calendars, Exhibition Hand-Books, etc. To all these we have devoted some attention during the year past. We tried last autumn the scheme of centralising the composition of the Appeal to parishes with, I believe, considerable economy of funds. It has been suggested to me in many parts of the country that an active R. D. Secretary with an annual appeal in his hand sent to him personally from Headquarters would be of far more value than the posting of the Annual Appeal. He would be expected to visit every parish in his deanery at least once a year, and would have this statement and appeal as his ammunition.

Our Propaganda Leaflets are always under revision. The new leaflets on our Emigration Work and Vernacular Literature are typical of what is in view: the different coloured paper for each department of the work, and black and white block pictures where necessary instead of photographs. And I am assured on all sides that this method is more effective. And may I say that I would be most grateful if our Secretaries, who are always in touch with the varying mind and circumstances of the different parts of the country, would offer from time to time suggestions and hints, ideas or finished matter, for Propaganda literature.

Magazine Inset.—Here I would mention the issue of the free Inset for Parish Magazines. This scheme did not emanate from the Organising Department and is not officially recognised as part of its work. It is, however, intended to act as propaganda, and so comes within our purview. We are just reaching the completion of the second year of its issue. In our first issue we circulated 315,000 copies; in the last, over 351,000, and it is possible that these figures may be constantly growing. The point for consideration is whether the cost is justified on that particular method or whether, if the money is available, more benefit might not accrue to the Society by its expenditure on living agents. True, our income from the parishes has gone up considerably since the issue of this free Inset, but it cannot be stated whether such increase arises post hoc or propter hoc.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

THE accounts are presented in a form slightly different from that of previous years. This has the approval of the auditors, Messrs. Price, Waterhouse and Co., whose certificate will be found at the foot of the balance sheet (p. 84).

General Fund—Income and Expenditure Account.—This gives a record of all grants voted, under the headings of overseas and home, and the expenses of organising and propaganda, and administration. The income is shown under the headings of voluntary contributions and of invested funds, these being clearly set out to show the income from various sources. Expenditure exceeded income by £2,140 2*s.* 1*d.*, although there was an increase of about £1,800 on income from all sources.

Special Funds Account.—This is a new statement to include four special departments of work, for which increased earmarked contributions are invited.

The Foreign Literature Fund supplies books in numerous languages for the mission field: it will be noticed that sales brought an income of £6,607 15*s.* 9*d.*, that subscriptions and donations with Church collections produced over £900, and that the grant from the General Fund amounted to £3,500.

The Medical Mission Fund provided payment of £4,229 18*s.* for students preparing for service as missionary doctors, and £267 10*s.* for hospitals. These payments were mainly from grants voted in previous years, but further help was promised to the extent of £5,810 for studentships and £325 for hospitals. It will be noticed that ear-marked contributions amounted to £658 2*s.* 4*d.* only, so that the General Fund bears the main liability for these grants.

The Emigration Fund tells its own tale of payment to Port and Voyage Chaplains as the main expenditure, borne, except for special contributions of £45 12*s.* 4*d.*, by the General Fund.

The Church Literature for the Blind Fund shows expenditure of £311 11*s.* for new stock, and £130 16*s.* 8*d.* for salaries. Income comes from sales and from the General Fund, except for £21 3*s.* 8*d.* special gifts.

Legacies Account.—The practice of many past years has been continued. Every legacy is taken into income in ten yearly instalments, which tends to equalise the income from this source. The legacies received were £6,250 2*s.* 4*d.* The instalments of the year and of previous years transferred to income were £6,594 15*s.* 6*d.*

Publishing Trading Account.—There was a loss of £2,893 18*s.* 6*d.* on the year's business. This was a disappointment after the improved position of recent years, but it must be remembered that the year under review includes the period of trouble which began with the General Strike in May, 1926, and continued for six months or more in the coal industry, whereby all business was adversely affected.

Balance Sheet.—The Liabilities and Assets of the Society as a whole (apart from freehold property, which with the approval of the auditors is not valued yearly) appear here. There is no great change from the previous year. The balance of the General Fund has increased from £47,232 15*s.* 3*d.* to £51,810 17*s.* 7*d.*, but this is caused by an unusually large sum for "money grants lapsed" after a careful scrutiny of grants voted more than five years ago and not claimed.

The investments held by the Society as trust funds and endowment funds, as pension fund for staff and on behalf of the General Fund, are shown in a classified form approved by the auditors.

Special Trusts Account.—The many items in this account are a witness to past benefactors and their confidence in S.P.C.K. as an administrator of funds for some purpose which they desired to assist. There has been no addition to the list, and the balance of unexpended income is approximately the same as in the previous year.

Members of the Society desiring further information about the accounts are invited to write to the Secretaries, who will be ready to give such replies as the Treasurers may approve.

The number of book grants voted during the past year is shown in the above figures, which are slightly less than in the previous year.

The annual grants of £100 each to the Missions to Seamen Society and St. Andrew's Waterside Church Mission were again renewed, also the £150 voted for literature for the use of the Society's Port and Voyage Chaplains amongst the migrants to Canada, S. Africa, Australia and New Zealand.

The applications call for no comment, but one item of £20 to provide religious pictures amongst the primary schools in the diocese of Chota Nagpur is perhaps of some interest. The request came through the Bishop.

264 missionaries going abroad for the first time were helped with gifts of books for their personal use to the value of £774.

The privilege of purchasing books in the proportion of £3 for an expenditure of £1, with a limit of £6, to students in theological colleges and newly-ordained clergymen was again largely taken advantage of, the number of applications being 353 and the value of books so supplied £1,542 12*s.* 9*d.* a considerable increase on last year.

Picture Cards, for children in hospitals and dispensaries in the United Kingdom were sent out at Christmas, as in previous years, to 45 rate-supported and voluntary hospitals and institutions in which there were some 7,751 patients.

Season Tracts, offered to the parochial clergy for the various seasons of the Church, were issued as follows:—

LET US REMEMBER

THE EMPIRE SETTLER

THE TRAVELLERS BY SEA, AND THE ADVENTURERS WHO GO TO MAKE A NEW HOME ACROSS THE SEAS

Our Church, through the S.P.C.K., can care for them if you will help.

WHAT IS BEING DONE?

1. Provision of Port Chaplains at Liverpool, Southampton, London, Bristol, Belfast, Londonderry, Glasgow and Greenock, and at Overseas ports of arrival (see p. 61).
2. Appointment of clergy, wherever possible, as voyage-chaplains.
3. Publication and distribution of a directory of clergy in all lands, to whom letters commending travellers can be addressed by their friends and clergy in the old country.

PERHAPS SOME of YOUR RELATIONS or FRIENDS have been HELPED!

WHAT IS YOUR PART?

1. To REALISE that although the Church of England Council of Empire Settlement, the Church Army, the Waifs and Strays Society, etc., etc., often send out Emigrants, THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND DEPENDS SOLELY ON S.P.C.K. TO GIVE THEM THE SACRAMENTS on the voyage, and to PROVIDE THEM WITH PASTORAL CARE, AND A KIND FRIEND in the person of the ship's padre.
2. To pray regularly for those journeying by sea to a far country, and for those who minister to them.
3. To see that this work is not hindered through lack of funds. Gifts may be "earmarked" for this purpose (see p. 5).

S.P.C.K. Ladies' Association

IN AID OF

Medical Mission Work

Its Aim:—

(a) To help Medical Missions by Prayer and Almsgiving.

(b) To gain the interest and offerings of those able to give only small sums (e.g. 5s. or less each year), whose gifts are at present withheld from lack of knowledge about Medical Missions.

(c) To spread knowledge among Church people that the S.P.C.K. trains doctors (men and women) for Missionary Work and assists to build Mission Hospitals.

(d) To have Honorary Secretaries in every diocese, who will assist to carry out the objects of this Association.

Each Annual Subscriber of 1s. and upwards will be supplied with an Annual Report of the S.P.C.K. Medical Mission Work.

The Hon. Secretary will be glad to hear from any Ladies who would subscribe or collect subscriptions, or send work for the Annual Sale ; Annual Gifts of 5s., or less, would be very acceptable.

The Sale is held in October ; articles for the stalls may be sent at any time to S.P.C.K. House, Northumberland Avenue, London, W.C. 2., marked "Ladies' Association Sale."

Hon. Sec.: MISS DUVAL, 37, Talbot Road, Highgate, N.6.

APPENDIX TO AUDIT ACCOUNT

SHOWING DETAILS OF MEMBERSHIP AND CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE GENERAL FUND OF THE SOCIETY

APRIL 1, 1926, TO MARCH 31, 1927.

† Denotes that the contribution is for the Foreign Literature Fund.

‡ For Medical Mission Work.

§ For Spiritual Work among Empire Settlers.

‖ For Braille Church Literature.

L.A.S.—In lieu of annual subscription. E.S.—Endowment subscription.

Subscriptions may be compounded—

(a) for life, £20 for £1 1 0
40 ,, 2 2 0
100 ,, 5 5 0

(b) for perpetual endowment, £25 for £1 1 0
50 ,, 2 2 0
125 ,, 5 5 0

N.B.—The amount of subscriptions actually received during the year is less than the aggregate of the subscriptions which may be expected from the Members in any Diocese, as a few subscriptions are unpaid.

An annual subscription of £1 1*s.* is the minimum sum for membership, and the year of election is shown against the member's name.

The following pages show the names of members and all contributions in detail.

The general arrangement is by dioceses and, in the matter of collections in churches and at meetings, by archdeaconries, rural deaneries, and parishes.

Attention may be called to the Treasurers' request for "earmarked" contributions. At the head of this page will be found the explanation of the various signs (†, ‡, §, ‖) appearing against contributions given for various departments of work ; where there is no special sign the contribution is made to the General Fund. The totals of such "earmarked" contributions will be found in the audited accounts (pp. 79 and 81).

This arrangement has been adopted to indicate what amounts are received from each diocese, as (a) members' subscriptions and donations, (b) other personal gifts, and (c) collections.

The summary on the following page combines (a) and (b) as personal gifts in the first column, shows collections in the second column, and the total gifts from each diocese in the third column.

The Secretaries will be grateful for corrections, where names of subscribers or of parishes appear under the wrong diocese ; care has been taken to secure accuracy, but errors arise sometimes where a private address near the border of a diocese includes a post town in the adjoining diocese.

Members' names appear under the Diocese in which they were resident at the date of payment during the year ended March 31, 1927.

Prayer for the Society.

O GOD, from Whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all works of piety and charity do proceed, we beseech Thee to prosper with Thy blessing the designs of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. Comfort with Thy grace those benefactors who contribute to its support. Bless the ministry of Thy servants, the clergy; the endeavours of all who are engaged in spreading the knowledge of true religion in this kingdom; and the labours of those missionaries who are promoting the same in foreign parts.

And may Thy Holy Spirit direct all their consultations to the advancement of Thy glory and the good of Thy Church, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Suggested Intercessions for the Society's Work.

SUNDAY.—That the Dioceses established and Churches built with the Society's help may be centres of Christian activity.

MONDAY.—That St. Katharine's College, the Sunday Schools built by the Society's help, and all other efforts to promote religious education may be guided and blessed.

TUESDAY.—That the S.P.C.K. Chaplains may succeed in their work of drawing emigrants nearer to God, and so help to build up Christ's Church in the British Empire.

WEDNESDAY.—That writers may be inspired to produce and the Committees to choose such books as will promote true Christian Knowledge.

THURSDAY.—That the men being trained with the Society's help in the Colonies and Mission Field to preach the Gospel as Clergymen, Lay Readers, and Catechists, may go to their work full of faith and the Holy Ghost.

FRIDAY.—That the Medical Missions being helped and Doctors being trained by the Society may prepare the way of the Lord.

SATURDAY.—That all executive officials may be faithful and zealous. That men may always be forthcoming to carry on the work done by our predecessors during the past 228 years.

Thanksgiving for the Society's Work.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Father of all mercies, we Thine unworthy servants do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men; particularly for that providential support by which this Society hath been enabled to spread abroad the knowledge of Thy sacred truth; but, above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by Thy blessed Son; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory which Thou hast given us in the same our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ; to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE ENDS OF THE WORLD.

INTRODUCTION.

"God shall bless us, and all the ends of the world shall fear him" (Psalm 67, 7).

THE choice of a title year by year which shall be descriptive of our "designs" (to quote the word used in the brief first rule of our Society) is not an easy task.

If "The Ends of the World" (which we hope that none will be tempted to misquote!) appears to anyone to be inadequate as a title when removed from the context, we would ask him to look at the Psalm from which the words are taken, and note how the verses accurately describe our "designs," while in the Authorised Version we find that it is entitled "A Prayer for the Enlargement of God's Kingdom."

A perusal of our Annual Report will certainly take the reader in mind to the ends of the world, and will help to show him that there are few parts of the earth, where our Church has her work, which are not being assisted by the gifts received from supporters here and overseas, and administered from S.P.C.K. House in the form of grants for a variety of purposes.

A particular feature of the work for the Church in other lands has been the increased demand for help in sending students from overseas dioceses to England for training; particulars are given in the section of the report which is called "In Other Lands."

"Doctors and Hospitals, especially Doctors," shows that there has been no reduction in expenditure on the training of men and women for medical service, or in other words, that there is a steady supply of suitable candidates, who are looking forward to a career as missionary doctors.[1]

[1] The illustration on the cover shows Assistant-Surgeon James Dayal, who received our help as a medical student. He is now doing good work at Murhu, in the diocese of Chota Nagpur. He is shown with a boy whose arm he successfully removed after compound fracture. The arm had begun to mortify, and the parents tried all sorts of charms and sacrifices before despair drove them to the Christian hospital—almost too late.

The care of the British Empire Settler, as he goes on his way, by the work of Chaplains at the ports and on the ships, is maintained, and would be extended if more information were sent about travellers. This is the dominant note struck by the Port Chaplains in their reports: they are eager for more letters.

In work at home, S. Katharine's College for School-mistresses, Tottenham, has been prominent. Fifty years of work have been completed and duly celebrated by a great gathering of students representative of every year. This celebration has coincided with certain offers and opportunities of development which have been carefully considered, but the present position is rather that of waiting for the means to meet the outlay. We would ask our readers to look at a statement on this matter (pp. 4, 5): any promises of help will be encouraging.

The publishing and bookselling business of S.P.C.K. brings the Society's name before a large section of the public. Those who are responsible for the conduct of the business are always eager to reach a larger section of the public, and our readers may be reminded that they can help to increase the volume of business by placing with us their orders for books of all publishers.

The departments which produce literature for the blind and for the mission field have a tale of increasing interest every year. Demand and supply cannot be balanced without considerable subsidy, for in both cases the cost of production is (generally speaking) beyond the spending power of the purchaser. Fortunately there are many who send special gifts to help the blind and to enlarge the work of the Foreign Literature Committee.

An introduction should be brief, pointing the way to later pages where details may be found. Reader, pass on to the section which has a special interest for you, and it may be that you will see your way to send something beyond your usual annual subscription to support a particular piece of work which is waiting, somewhere in "the ends of the world," for the help of yourself, and perhaps of your friends, to whom you may hand on this book.

HOME AFFAIRS.

The Archbishop of Canterbury.—A message of respect and congratulation was sent from the February Monthly Meeting to his Grace in the following form:

"The Members of S.P.C.K. assembled at the Monthly General Meeting on Tuesday, February 7th, 1928, send respectful greetings to their President, on his completion of twenty-five years in the office of Archbishop of Canterbury and acknowledged leader of the Anglican Communion.

"They would join with others in an expression of thankfulness for the wise guidance which your Grace has for so long a period given in affairs of the highest importance to the welfare of the Church and the nation."

The Archbishop sent the following reply:

"I thank you for your letter of February 7th containing a copy of the exceedingly kind resolution passed by the Monthly General Meeting of the Society a few days ago. Such resolutions are a great cheer and encouragement.

"I am, yours very truly,

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

The approaching retirement of the Archbishop of Canterbury on November 12 involves for our Society a change of President: that office being held by his Grace ex officio.

An address of appreciation and thanks has been prepared and will be presented by the Treasurers to his Grace at the Monthly General Meeting on Tuesday, November 6.

TO HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY

PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

"YOUR GRACE,

"To the sorrow of every member of our Society, for the last time this afternoon you have taken the chair as our official President. Your connection with the Society has lasted unbroken for forty-eight years. You first became a member in 1880, and you joined the Standing Committee in the following year. For seven years you served on our Emigration Committee, early evidence, if evidence were needed, of your interest in the Church beyond the Seas, whether within or without the Empire.

"You were elected a Vice-President of the Society before you became a Vice-President ex officio. For twenty-five years as Archbishop of Canterbury you have been our President. It is a record for which, we venture to think, no parallel could be found. For nearly half a century you have known the Society in and out, its work and its workers, continuously, personally, intimately, inspiring and receiving in fullest measure confidence and love. Year by year the calls upon your health and strength have grown in volume and variety. Your latter days have covered a time of singular anxiety in and for our Church. But during the twenty-five years of your Presidency you have hardly ever been absent from our Annual Meetings, and when asked for guidance, you have given the fruits of matured wisdom and rich experience, not as a duty but as a labour of love, not as an official referee but as the kindest and most sympathetic of friends.

"We would ask you to allow us to show our gratitude and affection by keeping your name in the forefront of our roll of members, placing it in a special category as Past President, the only Past President there can have been since the present Constitution of the Society was framed. Our official relations with your Grace are now coming to an end, but we love to think that your Grace's good offices for us will only end with life."

S. Katharine's College, Tottenham.—Fifty years of happy and successful work in the training of schoolmistresses were completed in 1928, and the Jubilee Festival was held on June 16th with much rejoicing. The Bishops of London and Willesden took part in the Service at Tottenham Parish Church, when the Dean of Canterbury preached to a congregation which included students of every year in the history of the College.

There followed a Service in the College Chapel, when the Bishop of London dedicated oak panelling which had been presented, at a cost of £400, by past and present members of the College.

After tea Canon Swallow, Chairman of the College Council, presided at a crowded meeting, when the Bishop of London, Prebendary Hobson, and Mrs. Bannister (one of the first year's students) spoke. Prebendary E. Hobson, Principal of the College from its foundation in 1878 for forty-one years, received a great welcome from his past pupils and from the present generation of staff and students, who recognise that to him are largely due the traditions and position of the College.

The day closed with an excellent dramatic performance by present students in the garden.

The Jubilee year has come with great opportunities of development, which were described in the following statement made at the Society's Monthly Meeting on July 3rd:

Increase of Students and need for New Buildings.—This College was founded at Tottenham in 1878, and 700 past students attended the Jubilee Festival on June 16th. Last May we voted £2,000 to meet the necessary expenditure of repair and maintenance of the existing buildings. This involves the repointing of the outer walls, repair of the stairs, etc.

During the last few months there has been an offer made to the Society to accept a temporary increase of students owing to the closing of the Home and Colonial College at Wood Green. This college is to close in July, 1929, but had already accepted certain students for September, 1928. We have had an offer to take twenty-seven of these students at S. Katharine's; this offer has been accepted, and temporary accommodation has been provided in adjacent houses.

But the closing of the Home and Colonial College means there will be 220 places for students to be distributed among other Church Training Colleges, and a further offer has been made to us to accept a permanent increase of thirty students. This offer has been provisionally accepted. Definite acceptance will mean large expenditure on the provision of new buildings. It involves not only housing these extra thirty students, but also, on the pressure of the Board of Education, abolishing many cubicles and providing study bedrooms for a number of other students, with some new classrooms and other accommodation which is much needed. Tentative inquiries with regard to approximate cost are being made, and it is impossible at present to give any accurate figure, but it will probably be about £40,000. That is the probable liability.

For an asset we have belonging to us S. John's College, Battersea. This college was first occupied by the National Society in 1852, and after about forty-five years they had either to buy the freehold or cease to occupy. S.P.C.K. bought the freehold and let to the National Society. This Society has recently combined S. John's College with S. Mark's, Chelsea, and just about the time of the removal the girls' college at Warrington was burnt down, and during the building of a new college the Warrington women students have been temporarily lodged in S. John's, Battersea. Their college will probably be completed in 1930, and the National Society has given us notice to terminate the lease of S. John's College in that year.

Therefore we shall have S. John's, Battersea, for disposal. The Standing Committee has given instructions to agents to find out its value, and whatever is realised from the sale of that property should be available for the new buildings of S. Katharine's, but it will not cover the whole cost, and the question will be how to find the balance. We hope later on that there may be some considerable special gifts. We have had promises of £500, £50, and £10 to start a building fund. We hope also there may be some help from the Central Church Fund.

It is obvious that if S.P.C.K. were asked to-day to start a Training College, the reply would be in the negative, but the Society has this healthy child, so to speak, of fifty years old which certainly cannot be abandoned. One of H.M.I.—Miss Dunn—spoke to the College Council recently and bore excellent testimony to the prestige of S. Katharine's College. Therefore for these reasons the Standing Committee think they should accept the offer of enlarging the College for an increased number of students, and they have passed the following resolution:

"The Standing Committee desires to accept the offer of thirty additional places permanently, but its final decision must depend in part on the amount of support forthcoming from the Board of Supervision for Church Training Colleges and from the sale of S. John's College, Battersea."

There the matter rests at the moment. If any persons with a lively interest in the maintenance of a flourishing Church Training College will intimate their willingness to contribute to the cost of the new buildings, such action will be very helpful. Offers of help, but not necessarily at present payment, may be made to the Secretaries of S.P.C.K.

The Treasurers have opened a special deposit account at Barclays Bank (Goslings Branch), 19 Fleet Street, E.C. 4, to which gifts may be paid for "S. Katharine's College Building Fund," by those who wish to make gifts, or to pay an instalment at once.

Founders' Day Anniversary, March 8th.—Westminster Abbey was placed at our disposal by the Dean and Chapter for a Choral Eucharist, when the Bishop of Carpentaria preached. At the afternoon meeting in the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, the Archbishop of Canterbury took the chair as our President, and a large audience listened to Professor R. K. Sorabji, lately Fellow and Professor of Law, Allahabad University, who spoke with eloquence and humour on "Christian Education and its Need and Effect in the Construction of New India." After tea at S.P.C.K. House, the Rev. C. C. Watts, lately Archdeacon of Swaziland and Government Inspector of Native Schools in Swaziland, preached on "Christian Education in its bearing on Racial Difficulties" at a service in S. Martin's-in-the-Fields. Gifts throughout the day were for Christian Education among our own people oversea and in India and Africa.

Treasurers.—Lord Aldenham, Prebendary G. H. Perry, and Dr. A. B. Stevens continue to serve the Society. Mr. H. W. Birks, who had served since 1917, resigned owing to ill-health, and was elected a Vice-President. His successor is Mr. A. G. Roby, K.C., who has been a member since 1901, and in recent years has given close attention to the Society's business.

Standing Committee.—There were seven vacancies in February due to retirement by seniority of service, and by resignation. These were filled by the re-election of the Rev. C. E. Butterfield, Colonel J. S. Hepworth, the Rev. C. Jenkins, D.D., and Mr. C. C. Paine, and the election for the first time of Lieut.-General Sir George MacMunn, K.C.B., K.C.S.I., D.S.O., the Rev. G. E. Farran, D.D., and Mr. C. E. Kelham. Finance and other Committees will be found on pp. 61–63.

The death of Canon E. Grose Hodge removed a member who for many years had given valuable service on the Standing Committee and as a member of the Religious and General Literature Committees.

Monthly General Meetings have been addressed by the Bishop of Carpentaria, the Bishop in Hokkaido, the Rev. V. H. Copley Moyle (Hong Kong), the Rev. B. W. Peacey (Lebombo), the Rev. C. W. Light (New Guinea), Canon E. S. Daniell (Uganda), and Miss E. C. Davies, M.B., Ch.B. (missionary doctor in Malacca). This list of speakers shows that a variety of first-hand news has been supplied to the members, and the only regret is that more of our members do not find it possible to attend. One regular attendant has suggested that if there should be at any time insufficient members to form a quorum, the business of the Society would come to a standstill and no grants would be voted! Perhaps our members within reach of town will prevent such a catastrophe! Notices of the meetings are sent to every member who has asked for them, and we shall be glad to add to the list.

New Members, over 200 in number, were elected from October to July. We want a larger number each year to fill the gaps caused by death and withdrawal. The Treasurers regard annual subscriptions of members as perhaps the most reliable source of income, but a falling list of members means a decrease of this income. Will our members send us names and addresses of likely supporters, to whom an appeal may be sent?

Endowment Subscriptions.—Our Treasurers have again acknowledged several capital gifts for investment, whereby the annual subscriptions of members have been made a permanent benefit to the funds. The Secretaries will be glad to answer any inquiries on this matter, and to supply particulars of the correct method of transfer of investments where this is more convenient than a cash payment.

Income Tax Recoverable.—Several of our members have signed the form of agreement to subscribe for seven years, whereby S.P.C.K. is able to recover income tax (if paid at the standard rate) on the amount of subscriptions (if paid out of taxable income), with the result that £1 1*s.* becomes to the Society £1 6*s.* 3*d.* at the present rate of tax. The plan does not involve any increased payment by the subscriber: the tax which he has already paid on his usual subscription is recovered by the Society. The Secretaries will be glad to supply particulars and the form of agreement for signature. The agreement does not create any charge on the estate of a subscriber who should die within seven years.

S. Katharine's College, Tottenham.—Extracts from the Principal's Report for the year ended July 31, 1928.

The number of Students at the beginning of the year was 129 (including 7 Day Students and 1 Private Student)—58 in the Second Year and 71 in the First Year.

The Examination in Religious Knowledge was held on March 26th. The Examiner appointed by the Theological Department of King's College, London, was the Rev. R. Tasker, Lecturer and Tutor at King's College. His general report on the work is as follows :—"It has been a pleasure to me to have the privilege of examining again the students of S. Katharine's College, and I am glad to be able to give a satisfactory report on the work. As last year, there was a marked difference in the quality of the answers shown by the First and Second Year Students, which shows that the Students make real progress in the subject during their stay at the College. The papers were marked on a high standard, and this probably accounts for the comparatively small number of Students placed in the First Class. On the whole the work was of a good Second Class standard—accurate and careful without a great deal of originality or brilliance."

The final result of the Second Year Students on the First and Second Year Papers was:—First Class, 6; Second Class, 31; Third Class, 19. Two students took one part of the examination.

In addition to the subjects in which examinations have been held, the Students have attended classes on the Prayer Book, the Communion Service and the Principles and Methods of giving Religious Instruction to children.

It is with much regret that I record the death of the Rev. R. Howel Brown, Vicar of Enfield. Mr. Howel Brown had been a member of the Council for many years, and until quite recently was also a member of the House Committee.

There have been the usual visits of H.M. Inspectors during the year to see the work of the Students in Teaching, Nature Study, Needlework, Handwork and Drill. Drawing and Music have not been inspected this year. No written reports have been received, but general satisfaction was expressed with the work of the Students, and the College classification was confirmed.

Past Students have gained the following successes :—

Ellen Miller (1912) London University Diploma in Psychology.
Ethel Chapman (1917) Archbishop's Diploma in Theology with Distinction.
May Field (1917) 3rd Class Honours, Geography, London, B.A.
Elsie Dimond (1924) 2nd Class Honours, English, London, B.A.
Mabel Dale (1927) London University Diploma in Geography.
Phyllis Simmons (1927) A.R.C.M.

On May 13th, the Bishop of Willesden held a Confirmation Service in the Chapel, when three First Year Students were confirmed.

The Chapel Offertories during the year amounted to £82 18*s.* 11*d.* and donations amounting to £64 11*s.* 2*d.* have been sent to various charities. Interest in Missionary work has been maintained, and in the year ending December, 1927, grants amounting to £60 were made.

The following are the reports of the Diocesan Inspectors on the College Demonstration School :—

GIRLS.

"The teaching in this school is quite definite, with a strong appeal to the imagination of the girls and the practical application of religion to everyday life. The girls are very alert (those in the lower part of the School being especially so), and have a keen appreciation of spiritual values. The younger girls are a very promising lot, and this is very encouraging for the future. The School deserves warm commendation."

INFANTS.

"This is a most successful School. The children are bright and responsive, the result of suitable, sound and stimulating teaching."

H. J. REGINALD OSBORNE,
Diocesan Inspector.

The College is again this year indebted to the Central Board of Finance for a grant of £240, and to the S.P.C.K. for a grant of £500.

Towards the close of the College year, the Council agreed to admit 27 additional Students in September, 1928. For this purpose a house in Lansdowne Road has been bought as an Annexe to the College, and a flat has been rented at Trafalgar House, White Hart Lane. This additional accommodation will provide good sleeping quarters for the Students, though the increased numbers will cause difficulties in the organising of the College work with the present class-room accommodation. The question of the future development of the College is a pressing one, but is receiving the careful consideration of the Council and the Standing Committee, and a decision must be arrived at in the near future.

The scheme for the co-operation of the London University with the London Training Colleges is now completed and has been accepted by the Council of S. Katharine's. Under the scheme, S. Katharine's, S. Gabriel's and S. Charles' Colleges are connected with Bedford College, and form one group under the Training College Delegacy. A group committee has been formed and meetings have already been held for the consideration of syllabuses. The first examination under the new scheme will be held in 1930.

The next two or three years will be momentous ones in the life of the College. I think it is not an exaggeration to say that a new era is opening for Training Colleges, and that there will be interesting developments for those which are equipped and ready to experiment. The general reorganising of the primary schools throughout England must affect the work done in the Training Colleges, and one can anticipate an increasing number of Third Year Students preparing eventually for work in the new modern schools. During these important transition years I trust that S. Katharine's may be able to preserve and add to the reputation which she has made during the past 50 years.

Foreign Postage Stamps.—Miss Duval (37 Talbot Road, Highgate, N. 6) acts as receiver and seller of stamps to aid medical mission work. She will be glad to hear from collectors, whose wants she may be able to supply, or to receive any duplicates which they can spare.

DOCTORS AND HOSPITALS, ESPECIALLY DOCTORS.

"On looking back over the last three months I find that the impression they have left on my mind is one of full wards and long hours of work with too small a staff. If admissions to the hospital continue at the present rate we shall have to keep a waiting list."

These words head a report of Dr. Hannah Irving, of St. Barnabas Hospital, Pondoland, in the diocese of St. John's, Kaffraria. They provide evidence that our expenditure on the training of missionary doctors is amply justified and that their service supplies a very real need. Dr. Irving was at one time on the list of medical students helped by S.P.C.K. and has been in Africa for many years.

Further evidence was supplied that we are not wasting money when Dr. E. C. Davies addressed a monthly meeting of our Society recently, and told us of her work in Malacca, where she has been working for three years in S. David's Mission Hospital. In her interesting address she told us of a mortality among children under one year of 278 per 1,000, of which at least 66 per cent. was preventable with improved knowledge and treatment and hygiene. Dr. Davies was one of the students whom we were privileged to help.

Other testimony could easily be found that our Society, in spending a large sum every year in the training of suitable medical students for missionary service is contributing a valuable element to the ministry of the Church in many lands.

So we have every good reason for asking our friends to give generously, by subscriptions to the General Fund, or by gifts earmarked for training doctors. Not every applicant for help succeeds; there is a fairly rigid examination of fitness and of financial need, and the occasional failure or disappointment among our grantees is rare enough to confirm the old saying that "exceptions prove the rule" that our candidates are of the best quality in their vocation and perseverance and desire to serve.

Our readers who look at the list of grants in the past year will see large figures opposite to the names (p. 58). They are asked to remember that the medical training is normally one of six years, that the larger grants are spread over that period, that payments are made quarterly, and are withheld if there is not a satisfactory report on work and progress. Further, the Society safeguards the expenditure of its funds on these medical students by a guarantee of repayment (given by some responsible person on behalf of the student) in case of failure to qualify, and to give at least three years service in the mission field. Though these guarantees are mainly on behalf of young people, who for one reason or another at an impressionable age may change their outlook during the years of their medical course, it very seldom happens that a guarantor has to be asked for repayment. Once again the rare exception proves the rule that repayment is seldom necessary.

The total figure of grants for medical mission work has been £6,840, all being for training except £345 for hospitals referred to later. Candidates recommended by S.P.G., C.M.S., U.M.C.A., and B.C.M.S. have been helped. Some of them were new, some required a little more help to meet their expenses before reaching the coveted goal of having passed their final examinations.

The Archdeacon of Calcutta, on behalf of the Metropolitan, asked for help in training a Bengali Christian girl, who was desirous of becoming a medical missionary to her own people. The course in India is inexpensive by comparison with charges at home, and £20 a year for four years will meet a great part of the cost.

The Bishop of Sierra Leone wrote that one of his clergy had for many years been anxious to take a medical training, and asked if our Society would help. The Bishop described this wish as "the first glimmer of a desire on the part of the West African clergy to become medical missionaries," and he hoped that our Society would give a helping hand to this pioneer work. So long ago as 1922 this clergyman had written to ask for help, and in the intervening years he has been saving money to this end. After considering the record of his ability, the Committee recommended and the Society voted £100 for one year, with the promise of further help if good progress is made, and this clergyman is now in this country about to start on his work for the medical degree of the University of London.

Grants for hospitals and dispensaries have been four in number and £345 in amount. This form of help is by intention only occasional, as maintenance is not our work, since we exercise no control of staff or buildings.

The Bishop of Dornakal received £40 towards the maintenance of the dispensary at Dornakal. This is still in the charge of an Indian doctor who was helped as a student, and the dispensary is about to develop into a hospital with some accommodation for in-patients.

The Bishop of Bombay is the trustee of a fund which has to be used for the benefit of a hospital in India, and it is necessary that the selected hospital shall be approved and supported by S.P.C.K. This limits the Bishop's power of administration of the fund, and at the same time compels S.P.C.K. to provide some support for a hospital, with the interesting fact of being able to decline or accept the Bishop's nomination! Theoretically interesting, in practice the position is easy, and when the Bishop made the double request that he might allocate the money to a mission hospital at Lusadia in his diocese, and that S.P.C.K. would help to fulfil the condition of the trust by giving some support, the reply was a grant of £10 a year for three years for this hospital.

The remaining hospital grants were £175 for a new development at All Saints, Engcobo, in Kaffraria, and £100 for S. Mary's Hospital, Ovamboland, in the missionary district of the vast diocese of Damaraland. These were building grants, to help new work in new places, entirely in accord with our tradition as a pioneer Society, whose task it has often been to blaze a trail along which others have followed.

Ladies' Association (in aid of Medical Missions).—Once again we have to congratulate the band of ladies who manage the Annual Sale in our Board Room on passing their previous best record. £153 18*s.* 5*d.* was obtained in less than six hours, and this with subscriptions and donations made a total of £355 13*s.* 1*d.* from the Association.

Two students are being supported, one at Cambridge and the other at the London School of Medicine for Women, and their hope is for work in China and Africa respectively.

Workers for the Sale held in October every year, and collectors of small subscriptions, are needed. Parcels for the Sale may be sent at any time to S.P.C.K. House, Northumberland Avenue, W.C. 2. They should be marked "Ladies' Association Sale."

Miss Duval (37 Talbot Road, Highgate, N. 6) is the Hon. Secretary, and will be glad to hear from any supporters and to supply information. An annual report is sent to every subscriber of not less than 1*s.*

AT THE PORTS AND ON THE SHIPS.

"S.P.C.K.! That means Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge."

"How did you know that?"

"I've often seen it on books."

"Are you a Church of England lad?"

"Yes."

"Does your Vicar know you are going to Canada?'

"Yes."

"Has he written to S.P.C.K. about you?"

"Not as far as I know."

That is the substance of a conversation between a Port Chaplain and a lad going to Canada, as one of a party under the conduct of the Salvation Army, and he was not the only Church lad among them. One asks why this Church lad was not going overseas under the conduct of the Church of England, which has its organisations for the purpose. The answer seems to be that there is still a lamentable lack of desire to use these organisations, that Church people leave our parishes without any concern, on the part of those who might be expected to care, that they shall be looked after in their travels as Church people.

This is an old problem which has puzzled others, and continues to puzzle us who are working to-day for the welfare of Church people setting out for new homes overseas.

There is always a temptation to argue from the particular to the general, as if one case of neglect was typical, and therefore it may be well also to record here that there is some evidence of increased interest elsewhere in the use of commendatory letters. For two years the Society has been issuing half-yearly a leaflet for insertion in Parish Magazines. Prominence is given every time to the work of the Port and Voyage Chaplains. This has brought a certain number of letters from people who write because "we have seen about S.P.C.K. in our Parish Magazine." This is all to the good, but these few letters by no means fill the gaps. There are letters from the Church of England Council of Empire Settlement, the Church Army and other organisations about their parties, but the letter which comes from the incumbent or the Parochial Church Council about an individual or a family is sufficiently rare as to be a surprise, or at least an exception to the rule! Let us pass from what we are tempted to consider the omissions of other people, whose co-operation we desire, but fail to get, to what our own work has been.

The year has passed without any notable event in connection with our work at the ports. The service of the Chaplains is maintained without change of personnel. They have been "inspected" recently by visits of the Committee to Tilbury and Southampton, and a visit to Liverpool only failed owing to difficulty in choosing a convenient date. There is ample evidence that the Chaplains continue to enjoy the confidence of the representatives of the Shipping Companies; this is shown by the readiness to grant every facility, and by the welcome given to members of the Committee, who are behind the Chaplain and his daily work. Evidence from another quarter of good work at the ports was a donation from the Girls' Friendly Society in gratitude for help given to their parties. The maintenance of the supply of Voyage Chaplains is, as always, a difficulty. The clergy who are travelling are apt to be gregarious rather than solitary; but it is a pity that one ship should carry two or more clergy, when another ship, outward bound for the same destination and in the same week, with possibly a larger company of passengers, sails without a Voyage Chaplain. Every effort is made to "spread" the clergy available over the greatest number of ships, but success alternates with failure.

Success was achieved when three priests came together on a holiday tour from S. Africa and might have returned together, but they saw the point when their services as Voyage Chaplains were asked for, and three ships carried these three men back to the Cape.

Failure is recorded when members of a community refuse to be separated, or when two brothers taking up work in a diocese in Australia insist on travelling by a ship for which a voyage Chaplain is already provided, though they had some reason for doing so.

Our records show that our Voyage Chaplains have risen to 128 (122 in the previous year): viz. Canada, 65 (56); S. Africa, 24 (31); Australia, 29 (26); New Zealand, 10 (9). They are practically unanimous in their reports that the offer of their services, communicated by S.P.C.K. to the captains through the office of the Shipping Company, is gladly accepted and sympathy shown in the arrangements for services.

It was an anxious enquiry by the captain of a ship at Tilbury, when members of the Committee were on board, whether there was a Voyage Chaplain, and the reply had to be: "No clergyman on board until you reach the Cape," whence the Chaplain, who had gone out three weeks earlier, would continue his voyage.

On another occasion the position was reversed. A Chaplain who sailed from Tilbury and disembarked at the Cape, wrote: "I thank you very much for affording me so much happiness in asking me to act as Voyage Chaplain during the three weeks I was on the ship, and I am very sorry for all I left undone, especially as no minister of any kind joined the ship here for Australia. The commander had the interests of the passengers at heart."

Another Chaplain wrote: "In everything I did I was splendidly backed up by the captain and ship's staff, through whose courtesy and assistance alone I was able to accomplish anything."

A closing word is necessary about the funds for this work. A guess is made each year as to the probable cost. This figure is sometimes exceeded, and sometimes not reached, but £3,500 is the average. The past year's effort to obtain special gifts, thereby relieving the Society's General Fund of some part of the cost, met with some success, seeing that £651 was received, including gifts amounting to £181 10*s.* from four of the City Companies. The appearance in May 1927 of the World Call Report on the needs of Our Own People Overseas was helpful as a ground of appeal, but it remains to be seen whether there has been aroused a permanent interest in the spiritual care of British settlers while on their travels, sufficient to bring special gifts for our work. A recent gift of £100, without any special appeal to the donor thereof, makes one hopeful, while another well-wisher sent this letter:—

"The last Quarterly Intercession Paper of S.P.G. gives such a pleasing account of the work of the S.P.C.K. Port and Voyage Chaplains among our own people who emigrate, that I feel I can hardly make a better response to the Fifth Annual Report of the World Call than to send a small sum towards the maintenance of these Chaplains. I therefore enclose cheque £1 1*s.* for this object, and hope to do the same each year at Ascensiontide."

The Port Chaplains are able to supply the picturesque details of their daily work in contact with the people to whom they act as guides, philosophers and friends, giving the helping hand and the word of advice which is welcomed by those who are somewhat confused and anxious in the strange circumstances and hustle of embarkation.

Liverpool.—Report of the Rev. H. E. Elwell.—Once again it is my pleasant duty to tell you of the happenings of the past year in the Port of Liverpool with reference to those who have left for the first time to try the great adventure overseas.

Numbers have not increased or, if they have, it must be in a very small degree.

This is due to such causes as a very strict medical examination, a somewhat doubtful harvest in Canada last year and quota restrictions.

There may be other reasons as well, but these alone will account for a good deal.

On the other hand, those who have sailed have been of our best and likely to help in the building up of our Dominions to a greater strength, morally, physically, and we trust spiritually.

We have again endeavoured to see off all these "first timers" and to visit freely among them on sailing-day, in the Shipping Offices, on the Landing Stage, on the Tenders, and, of course, and most specially, on the Ships themselves.

As well as this general visitation it has been our particular care to hunt most carefully for "commendeds" (if I may use such a word). These have special attention and are always introduced, if in any way possible, to the Voyage Chaplain.

Our opportunities of help can only be at the most for a few hours, while the Voyage Chaplain has at least a week in which to make his presence felt.

Hence the need of a Chaplain, not merely to take a few services or give two or three talks, but to get down to individual work and deal with his flock in ones and twos—quiet yet intensive work, instructing, guiding, helping and commending.

Since this time last year there have sailed about 130 liners to Canada alone from Liverpool, and this includes the winter, when emigrants are few.

On these ships we have managed to secure 43 clergy to act as Chaplains, most of them accepting an honorarium for their services, and a few very kindly giving their help for nothing.

The proportion on Southampton ships will be considerably less, but I take some consolation from the thought that the foreigner makes a more extensive use of that Port than he does of Liverpool.

Altogether 65 Chaplains have been found to proceed to Canada, and I wish particularly to testify to the keenness and zeal with which they have pushed off to do their work, and as far as I can tell with excellent results. Their work has been, I am sure, the greatest blessing to many a soul at a most important and really a solemn time of life.

The whole character of ship's life has tremendously changed in my memory in the way of comfort, food and accommodation, while amusements such as nurseries, games, and last of all "pantophones" have been added, but there is still need and still opportunity for prayer, praise and sacrament on the big ship. May our Chaplains increase in number and in usefulness.

Coming to the Emigrants themselves, commendations are somewhat down as well as letters. This is attributable to the falling off in Emigration to Australia; last year there were from Liverpool 9 ships with 384 passengers and 116 letters as against 5 ships with 152 passengers and 47 letters this year.

This decrease makes the figures for Canada and elsewhere about the same, in fact rather better.

Extract from a postcard.—"It was splendid of you to have found Messrs. —— and —— on the Calgaric last Friday, seeing that they were not wearing the badges. They thought they were for the other side. They and their people are delighted. I will put an account in the R.D. Magazine." This sort of letter is very nice to receive and seems to prove that efforts have not been entirely in vain.

I think our friendship with the Shipping Companies, Canadian Government and other Societies is well maintained: at any rate it appears to be.

Nothing further remains, as far as I know, but to append the usual statistics.

Chaplains to Canada	65
Commendations	1811
Letters commendatory	475

Ships visited: Canada 142, U.S.A. 85, other places 31. Total 258.

Port of London.—Report of the Rev. W. C. Bown.—"I think it is really wonderful the way you find our people; and I can assure you we greatly appreciate all that you are doing for them." "Many thanks for your kindness in finding time to look up young R—— at Tilbury Docks the other week. I have felt rather anxious about the lad, and I am so happy to feel that you saw him. His mother, poor soul, could not face the business of seeing the boy off. She took the boy to his first Communion on the Sunday and then went quietly away the same morning." "Very many thanks to you for looking after this boy; his parents are most grateful to you. It is splendid of you doing this work which is of great value and will not be forgotten."

These are only a few of the many letters that one receives when informing parents and others of the safe departure of their friends and relatives for lands overseas. Many more could be quoted, but these are sufficient to show the real appreciation of our work for the migrants. Our only sorrow is the fact that many more are not commended. On very many occasions we have discovered young men, choirmen in their own parish or in some way closely connected with the corporate life of the Church, who are commencing the great adventure of their life without any commendation from their home parish and the Church which many of them passionately love. I have written again and again to Vicars of parishes, informing them that a parishioner of theirs has gone overseas, and I should be delighted to be of some assistance to any more that may be going. Sometimes we get response, but more often our action is ignored.

The help and interest of the Shipping Companies in this work continues, and we are deeply grateful to many officials who ofttimes go out of their way to assist and help us, which makes the work much easier and far more effective. The outstanding feature of the year was the return of the P. & O. Branch Boat Bendigo to Falmouth with a propeller missing. I visited the ship while there, and spent the day with our Chaplain, the Rev. J. Drabble. It was quite natural that many of the overseas travellers were anxious to go ashore during the few days they were so close to the homeland, but owing to the Board of Trade regulations this was impossible. One can testify to the extraordinary influence for good during the strained hours exercised by our Chaplain amongst the disappointed passengers. One heard many expressions of appreciation from Captain, Officers and passengers of his very able work at that time. It was also most gratifying to note the splendid attempt the P. & O. Company made to amuse the passengers during the enforced wait so close to the shore.

During the past year 99 ships have been seen off; 35 Voyage Chaplains appointed; 1,670 commendations received and 604 letters. The whole work shows a distinct rise on last year's figures, with the exception of Chaplains, which we fear has again dropped. It was most disappointing on several occasions to find two and sometimes three Church of England Priests on one boat and then weeks to pass before a ship's Chaplain could be found.

Our thanks are specially due to Mr. Weston of Australia House for putting us in touch with the Welfare Officers who are appointed by the Australian Government, and our best thanks are due to the Welfare Officers for so kindly looking after those who are commended to us, in the absence of a Voyage Chaplain. Our thanks are also due to the Committee of St. Andrew's Waterside Church Mission for the use of the launch Sir Edward E. Cooper that enables this work to be done so expeditiously, and to Mr. G. A. Bottomley, Station-master of Tilbury, and Mr. W. J. Butcher, Station-master of Tilbury Docks, for many favours received during the carrying out of this work.

In conclusion, one feels more and more the value of this work each year. The interest becomes fascinating. Our only regret is that we cannot be more useful through the failure of parochial clergy to commend their parishioners. Surely this work, if properly done from the source (i.e. the parish) to the work in the new land, should be a great national tie of fellowship within the Empire, and an unbreakable bond of union between the Mother Church and the Daughter Churches in our Dominions and dependencies abroad.

Southampton.—Report of the Rev. Pierce R. Butler.—"They that go down to the sea in ships and occupy their business in great waters; these men see the works of the Lord, and His wonders in the deep" (Ps. cvii. 23, 24)—and the annual report of an S.P.C.K. Port Chaplain is an attempt to show how the Migration Department of that Society is striving to make those words come true in the lives of those who seek new homes in the far-flung lands of our Empire. It is by the spiritual ministrations of the Port and Voyage Chaplains that S.P.C.K. endeavours to put "those who go down to the sea in ships" in mind of the "wonders of the Lord."

The past year has been full of opportunities. When one realises that there have been 271 ships carrying third-class British passengers to visit, and that among the passengers there have been 1,741 specially commended by name to the Port and Voyage Chaplains, one begins to understand something of the possibilities of contact between the Church and her travelling children. The names have been sent to me at Southampton in 611 letters coming from parish priests, friends of the migrants or the great Church Emigration Societies. Thus on every ship that has sailed from this port there has been something tangible to go upon, some son or daughter of the Church looking for and definitely expecting her help.

How has this call been met? In the first place we have placed 39 Voyage Chaplains on ships sailing from Southampton. This does not look much spread over 271 sailings, and indeed it is far from what we want, and the labours of the Port Chaplain must fill in the gap. Every one of these commended passengers has been interviewed and helped on board the ship. Besides this, many have been placed in selected lodgings and seen there on the night before sailing: nearly 200 have been thus looked after. I make a practice of meeting these people at the train and (being fortunately possessed of a car) of conveying them and their belongings to their rooms. Their gratitude makes them very easy of approach, and I feel certain that this very material method can be made spiritually useful to a very high degree. The way the passengers and their friends value our work is shown by the number of letters of thanks. A very large proportion of the emigration from this port is juvenile, lads from 15 to 17 years of age. Many of their parents come down to see them off, and their gratitude for what one does for the lads is often very touching. I always report to the vicar or rector when I have seen these boys, and his answer always mentions the gratitude of the parents.

Two samples of "unsolicited testimonials" may here be of interest. One from a layman ends, "Very many thanks. I do admire and appreciate the splendid organisation of your Society." Another from a parish priest: "Very many most grateful thanks for being such a help to ——. His mother appreciated it more than words can tell."

A most encouraging feature of the year's work has been the increase of commendations from the parochial clergy and also from private individuals. There is room for many more of these, but the increase in the past three years has been very marked.

The work of the Church of England Council of Empire

Settlement continues to be of the greatest help. By means of its commendations I have been brought into close touch with many who might easily have been overlooked. In the limited time we have on sailing-day in Southampton it is extraordinarily difficult adequately to "cover" every boat. Hence any system by which we can quickly recognise Church people is doubly and trebly welcomed. The difficulty referred to may be realised when faced with Saturday (our rush day at Southampton) sailings. Between 10 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. I often have five liners to visit in widely separated docks. On these days a well-established friendship with the Docks Police is of great value, as there is a very strict 10-mile limit inside the gates! I should like to record my gratitude to these kindly defenders of the peace for their unfailing courtesy and helpfulness.

Annually, too, one bears record of the continued kindness of the great Shipping Companies and their staffs. In Southampton the best helpers I have are the shore staffs. I cannot speak highly enough of their unfailing help and hospitality. No trouble is ever too great for them.

An interesting event this year is the opening by the White Star line of a Canadian service. We now have three Canadian sailings from the port, C.P.R., Cunard, and White Star. This with the South African, New Zealand, South American, New York, and Far Eastern service illustrates the great and growing importance of Southampton as one of the great gates of the world.

A visit of the Emigration Committee to the port has enabled its members again to make contact with the work at first hand. The visit (which I hope will be an annual fixture) is much appreciated by myself and is of the greatest help.

It is good to know that those who direct one's activities know what one is doing and the problems one is faced with. It is also a very great help that those among whom the work is carried on should realise that the Port Chaplain is not an independent man carrying on a work on his own.

In conclusion I give a tabulated return of the actual work done and a comparison with former years.

Glasgow.—Report of the Rev. R. H. Andrews.—The work has gone on quite steadily during the year. Rather more ships were visited this year than last year, and the number of people seen and commended has been in proportion greater. All of those who have been helped on their way have been most grateful, and many are astonished to find how the Church is caring for them. Still more could be done if those going abroad would tell their parson in time so that he could write ahead and prepare the way for them.

I have to report with gratitude that a good many more commendations have come to hand this year. If the clergy could give full Christian name and the class by which the settlers are travelling it would facilitate the work very much. If they would also ask their people going abroad to look out for the chaplain with the large S.P.C.K. button in his coat and to speak to him, it would also save a great deal of trouble and time.

Our most grateful thanks are due to the Shipping Companies, who render us every help they can and keep us informed of each sailing.

Belfast.—Report of the Rev. W. P. Hosford.—Most of the ships sailing from here carry emigrants, but for some reason the emigrants are chiefly Presbyterians and a few Roman Catholics.

We go to the Shipping Agents the night before the ship sails and get the names of all C. of I. emigrants. At times a few turn up late, so that as a rule we have to hunt round to make sure we have not missed anyone.

We have only missed one boat carrying emigrants during the year, and that was because we were not notified of a change in the sailing.

Speaking generally, emigrants are very grateful for the S.P.C.K. booklet and for the kindly interest taken by the Church as they leave their native land.

In many cases there is an opportunity of saying a word and having an individual chat with the emigrants as well as giving them the S.P.C.K. booklet.

It is often impossible to commend individuals to a Clergyman at the Canadian side, as they are generally shipped to distribution centres. However, they are advised to look out for the S.P.C.K. Chaplain at the port of disembarkation. They are also advised to look up in the booklet the Rector of the Parish to which they are sent.

IN OTHER LANDS.

If there is any particular change this year in the variety of the Society's grants for the Church in other lands, it is shown in the requests which have been received from the Bishops of several dioceses, mainly in India and the Far East, for help to send young clergy and ordination candidates to England for training. These will be noted further on in this section, where reference is made to the particular dioceses for which such help has been given, but the matter is of sufficient interest to occupy a small space. There had been some evidence that there would be an increase of such applications, and the Standing Committee thought it wise to lay down some general conditions, viz. that the request should be made before the student started for England, and that an arrangement should be made for repayment if the student did not return to the diocese whence he came for ordination, or within three years of ordination if there should be good reason for short service in an English parish to gain experience before taking up an isolated bit of work overseas.

These conditions are, of course, general, and must be subject to variation under some circumstances, but they are intended to provide, firstly, that adequate financial arrangements are made in advance for the period of training, and secondly, that the grantee shall be assisted with a view to strengthening the ministry in an overseas diocese, and not in England.

However severe the shortage of clergy here, there is an abundance of men in comparison with the shortage in many other lands, and the purpose of S.P.C.K. at the present time, in its work as a Missionary Society, is to strengthen the ministry overseas, where Church funds are less abundant and candidates even fewer than in this country.

One Bishop pointed out the difficulty in his wide diocese, with half-a-dozen clergy and scattered communities, of placing a deacon (who might have come to England for training if a grant were made) to work alone or even to find him a position under another clergyman. This would be a case for exception to the general conditions of such grants, and is a fair illustration of how short service in England might be more useful in every way than return to the diocese overseas for ordination.

The requests for help for students from overseas, while in England, has not been confined to men. On a later page there will be found some account of women from Corea and North China, who are to take, with our Society's help, courses of training for evangelistic work, and for the post of a headmistress, and whose Bishops wish them to come to England for this purpose.

These paragraphs dealing with variety and exception to our usual grants lead on to the more usual help for buildings (churches, colleges, and schools), and education (primary and secondary, and on to College and University).

Canada and Newfoundland.

The Bishop of Newfoundland made two applications for help in building churches: at Bonavista, an old settlement, there had to be a new church, and it was economy for the future which led to the adoption of plans for a cement church, more expensive in the first instance than timber, but more durable, and the presence of material and suitable labour for this form of building was a further point; this church will receive a grant of £100.

The other application was for a very new place, viz., Buchans, Grand Falls, where a large town is springing up, owing to the discovery of iron ore, which will lead to the employment of a large population, and £200 was promised.

From Nova Scotia came a request for help in providing new buildings for King's College, Halifax. An offer of a very substantial sum from the Carnegie Trust, under a scheme of affiliation with the Dalhousie University in Halifax, constrained the authorities of King's College to transfer their College from Windsor. A fine site was offered, and a large sum of money, provided that it was met by a considerable amount from other sources. The advantages to King's College, itself a University, and retaining certain rights as such under the scheme of affiliation with the Dalhousie University, were obvious, and a grant of £800 was voted towards the cost of the chapel in the new King's College buildings.

Other grants to Canada have been for dioceses in the middle west. The Archbishop of Rupert's Land asked for help towards a church for an Indian congregation at S. Mary, Fairford, and £30 was promised. The Bishop of Calgary needed help for two ordination candidates for whom £120 was voted. The Bishop of Edmonton made two requests for small churches, and grants of £20 and £10 were made.

More help was given to Qu'Appelle, seven churches receiving in the aggregate £85, and £75 being promised to help a theological student for three years.

West Indies.

This title signifies the Province of the Church of the West Indies, with its eight dioceses, and to six of them grants have been made.

The Archbishop, for his diocese of Antigua, was promised £60 for a church at S. Mary, and £57 went to Jamaica for four churches and schools. Educational grants were renewed at £48 for the Girls' High School, Grenada, in the diocese of the Windward Islands, at £24 for the Girls' High School, Trinidad, and at £60 for the Boys' and Girls' Diocesan High Schools, Belsize, in the diocese of British Honduras, and for this last diocese £60 was also given to assist an ordination candidate while at Codrington College, Barbados.

The Bishop of Guiana also sought help for a student at Codrington College, and for the enlargement of two schools, the grants being £25 and £40 respectively.

Africa.

A summary of grants for the work in this vast continent is not an easy task. The grants numbered nearly 60, varying in amount from £6 for a small native church building in the diocese of S. John's, Kaffraria, to £240 for the great training college at Keiskama Hoek in the diocese of Grahamstown.

Beginning with help given to work on the west coast, there was £50 for a church at Bo in the diocese of Sierra Leone, and £100 for a school at Port Harcourt in the diocese of the Niger, whose Bishop also asked for a renewal of £50 to assist the training of clergy and evangelists in the college at Awka. In Accra the first portion of S. Augustine's College, Kumasi, has been completed with our grant of £500 (voted in a previous year), and £90 was renewed to assist two of the students in training for holy orders.

The Bishop of Damaraland asked for help for S. Mary's Church and school in the missionary district of Ovamboland, and for S. Peter's School, Luderitzbucht: £250 was voted for his allocation according to the respective needs of the three buildings.

One grant of £20 was made for Capetown to provide a church for a poor coloured congregation at Durbanville.

Two big training colleges in the diocese of Grahamstown receive our help with scholarships each year. £240 was renewed for the scholarships of S. Matthew's College, Keiskama Hoek to help teachers in training, and £200 was given to help the girls in the Training College at Grahamstown, the candidates for assistance coming from several dioceses in the Province.

S. John's, Kaffraria, with its extensive work among natives, is constantly in need of help for the provision of small buildings, which in time are replaced by something larger and more permanent: six grants of this character amounting to £99 were voted. Educational work was also helped by renewed grants of £112 for the catechist and ordinand students of S. Bede's College, Umtata, £120 (for two years) for the teachers being trained at S. John's College in the same place, and £50 for the Augusta Girls' School, Engcobo.

At Estcourt in Natal there is a development of native work, which requires new buildings: £100 was promised for the church and £25 for the school. Other grants for the same diocese will help teachers at S. Chad's College (£48), catechists and ordinands at S. Alban's College (£36), and native girls at S. Hilda's College (£36). One other native church to be built at Umlazi received £100.

The diocese of Zululand has lost its veteran worker, Archdeacon Charles Johnson, who was always most appreciative of the help which S.P.C.K. gave to his work at the educational and industrial mission in which he worked for over forty years at S. Augustine's, Rorke's Drift. He frequently wrote that without the yearly grant the work would never have succeeded: £50 was renewed for another year. The Bishop again asked for help in training catechists and clergy at Isandhlwana, and for other schools which provide further education when the children leave the primary schools: for these £140 was voted. Further education grants for £105 were granted for the children of S. Mark's, Empolyngeni, and the industrial school at Endhlozana, and £30 towards the cost of a new school at Blood River.

Lebombo has to face difficult regulations of the Portuguese Government in its supply of teachers for the schools; these add to the cost of training at S. Christopher's College, Hlamankulu, but we hope that our regular help of £37 10*s.* to assist five of the students each year eases the burden of those in charge. The Bishop applied for one building grant, and £50 was promised for the church at Chilambe.

An annual grant of £100 for the boys at Masite Training School, in the diocese of Bloemfontein, was renewed, and £60 was voted for an ordination candidate at S. Paul's College, Grahamstown.

From Johannesburg came a request for help in extending the native girls' hostel at Doornfontein. This is a successful effort to provide safe lodgings for girls in domestic service who "live out" (as we should say in England): an expenditure of £1,200 will provide for sixteen more girls, and for this £120 was voted. The Bishop received £50 for S. Cyprian's School, Johannesburg, a native school in a hired building, now to be purchased and re-erected as Church property, and so secured as a Church school. The training of native clergy and catechists has been assisted by scholarships of £120 at S. Peter's College and Hostel, Rosettenville, and a grant of £60 for an ordination candidate who has been sent to S. Paul's College, Grahamstown.

In Southern Rhodesia the grants of £50 for S. Faith's Schools, Rusape, and of £150 for the diocesan training school at S. Augustine's, Penhalonga, were renewed.

Three churches and a school in the diocese of Kimberley and Kuruman received grants of £45.

There are two dioceses outside Africa, viz. Mauritius and Madagascar, which are difficult to place in a geographical summary, but may be conveniently added to this section.

The Bishop of Mauritius has S. Paul's College, where he assembles his men for training as catechists and clergy: £150 was renewed as the annual grant for helping several of the students, and late in the year the Bishop asked if a promise for three years could be given, to ensure continuity of help for men who might have given up secular occupation to enter the College. The response to this request was £360, being £120 a year for three years, so that for a time there will be no grant to record, though payment will be made by instalments.

In Madagascar our Society has given regular help to S. Paul's College and S. Augustine's College for many years at the rate of £30 and £75 respectively, and these grants have been renewed. A recent letter from the Bishop tells us "that S. Augustine's College has been devastated by two successive cyclones and is now in utter ruins, and the neighbourhood in famine. All lives safe, I rejoice to say. The work of S.P.C.K. in helping us to get a native priesthood is incalculable, and I know no part of the world where at the moment the fruits are more obvious."

From Madagascar has come one of those students for training in England to whom reference has been made in the early part of this section of the report. Jean Marcel, after being a student in one of the Colleges, has come to Dorchester Missionary College for two years' training with a view to ordination, and our Society is giving £55 towards his expenses.

The Near East.

A full record of our Society's help for an area with this title would consist chiefly of the production of literature and payments for workers engaged therein. But that matter is dealt with in detail in the report of the Foreign Literature Committee which administers the money placed at its disposal by grants from the General Fund.

The Bishop in Jerusalem asked for help towards providing a small church at Renieh, near Nazareth, and £10 was voted.

From Persia the Bishop wrote about a church at Yezd, which for certain reasons it was desirable to build at once, or the opportunity might pass and not occur again; for this £50 was promised.

India.

Those who are acquainted with the early history of S.P.C.K. know that its funds were used for the maintenance of missions in Southern India long before there was a Bishop or any Anglican missionary in the land. That is ancient history, but there is probably direct connection, for something approaching 200 years, between S.P.C.K. and certain places in the southern dioceses of India, which is a matter of interest and deserves to be kept in mind, for S.P.C.K. was undoubtedly a pioneer in Indian missionary work.

There has been one grant in the diocese of Calcutta to provide some scholarships at S. Paul's School, Darjeeling. This school for European and Anglo-Indian boys has been helped for three years, under special circumstances, to regain its position, and this grant of £60 will be final. We hear of a substantial legacy from an old boy of the school which will be useful, and more valuable financially than our help!

The Bishop of Bombay put before us a scheme for the training of evangelists at Betgeri and Nasik, and asked that it might be adopted for three years, when the division of the diocese would cause some change in administration of the scholarships. It is enough to say that the Bishop was promised £94 8*s.* 4*d.*, which with a balance from a previous grant will provide for the scheme which he desired to adopt. Scholarships for three boys at S. Saviour's School, Ahmednagar, were renewed, and likewise at Mt. Abu Boys' School, £21 and £54 respectively, while one building grant of £50 for a church was voted.

Lucknow, which has mourned for the loss of its Bishop, one of the Westcott brothers, has received three grants, all for the help of education, viz. £60 for scholarships at St. John's College and School, Agra; £56 for St. Andrew's College, Gorakhpur, both large institutions where the few Christian students are in need of assistance to meet their fees, and £15 was given to help two girls in the Girls' Normal School, Benares.

A few years ago a building grant was given for a large school at Nankum in the diocese of Chota Nagpur; this has been completed and has a large number of boys and girls. The Bishop wrote that there were cases where education could not be paid for by the parents without assistance, and £100 was voted to enable some pupils in that position to be admitted at reduced fees.

The Cambridge Mission to Delhi, though not without support from funds provided by its friends in this country, looks for help from S.P.C.K. The Bishop of Lahore supported the request of Mr. Mukarji, Principal of S. Stephen's College, Delhi, for continuance of some help to poor Christian students, and £54 was promised to assist four of them with part of their fees; £122 was also voted for children in the four boarding and industrial schools of the same mission. From the same diocese came a request to assist a young Anglo-Indian with an excellent school record, who is to be sent to Selwyn College, Cambridge, for an ordination course, and £150 was promised to cover a period of three years, which may have to be extended for a year at a Theological College before he returns to India for ordination.

The Bishop of Nagpur repeated his request for help to the schools for Anglo-Indian and European children and for the All Saints' Orphanage in his diocese, and £132 was voted to provide 11 scholarships in four schools.

The early connection of S.P.C.K. with Southern India, already referred to, is maintained by many grants to the dioceses of Madras and Tinnevelly. In Madras the annual grant of £200 administered by a diocesan committee to help Native Seminaries and Girls' Boarding Schools was renewed, and also £150 for Christian boys in various Colleges and High Schools. Scholarship grants of £60 and £32 were also voted for the Bishop Cotton School, Bangalore, and All Saints' Industrial School, Trichinopoly. From Madras there came also a request to assist an Indian youth, who will come to S. Augustine's College, Canterbury, for three years, with a view to ordination, and £90 was voted to cover a period of three years.

£1,300 was voted for work in the diocese of Tinnevelly, of which £500 will assist to build, enlarge, and repair twenty-one churches and one school, the allocation of this amount being left to the Bishop to meet the varying local needs. The request for this help remarked that there seemed to be rather an outbreak of church building in the diocese! Other grants were £200 for the help of Christian boys in various Colleges and High Schools, and £100 for the higher education of girls at S. John's High School, Nazareth, and Sarah Tucker College, Palmacottah, and it happens that two requests for these grants fell within the year. The Bishop's Theological Seminary for Indian clergy received its annual grant of £100, and a similar amount was renewed for the S. John's Art Industrial School, Nazareth, which has made considerable advance in recent years, and whence there came some excellent models of furniture and other work done in the school, which are useful at Missionary Exhibitions.

The Bishop of Dornakal sought help for some men at Bishop Heber College, Trichinopoly, and £30 was voted to assist three of them. A request was made, though not by the Bishop himself, for help to train one of his sons for the ministry: £45 was voted for a course at a Divinity School in India, and a further £150 has been promised to enable him to come to Westcott House, Cambridge, for two years. It is thus our privilege to help along the way to the ministry of the Church a son of the first Indian Bishop, and one sees in this a happy sequel to the Society's early work for Christianity in India.

In the diocese of Travancore and Cochin, £60 was voted for the usual scholarships at the Diocesan Training College, Kottayam, for catechists and clergy, and a special grant of £75 for one year only to meet an emergency which the Bishop explained as arising from an increased number of students. £30 was promised towards the provision of a chapel at the same College, and a grant of £160 was renewed to help 40 children in five large schools in this diocese.

One request came from the Bishop of Colombo on behalf of a young priest from his diocese who is at S. Stephen's House, Oxford, and £50 was voted for him, on the conditions applicable to students from overseas as to return to the diocese whence he came on completion of his course at Oxford.

From Rangoon came particulars of a big rebuilding scheme for the Diocesan Girls' High School in Rangoon. Government help of a substantial kind is expected, but the balance to be provided from other sources is a large sum. £350 was voted as our contribution towards the new buildings, which will provide up-to-date and extended accommodation for a school which cannot at present admit all those who wish to enter. The only other grant for this diocese was £70 to help seven students in the Catechists' Training School at Toungoo. We have helped recently on a larger scale, and many of our grantees have passed out with credit and are at work in the villages. The missionary in charge writes that S.P.C.K. has helped to add valuable strength to the staff at work among the Karens.

This ends the rather long tale of help for the Church in India: the variety is interesting, but the tale is, of course, not complete, for there is no reference to the extensive help in the matter of literature, which is dealt with by the Foreign Literature Committee, whose report appears elsewhere.

The Far East.

There will be found in these paragraphs many illustrations of the fact already mentioned, that there is a spreading desire to send to England for training those who are to be

Christian leaders in the countries of the Far East. There may have been a time when doubt was expressed about the wisdom of such a plan, but that has passed, and though there may be an occasional mistake, it can be said that our help in this direction has not been misplaced in the past.

The Bishop of Singapore sought help for the provision of buildings for Pudu School, Kuala Lumpur, for which £200 was given, and £48 was voted for scholarships at S. Peter's School, Bangkok. Two grants were given for buildings in Labuan and Sarawak, viz. £100 for a church at Kudat, North Borneo, for a Chinese congregation, and £250 to be divided by the Bishop between the schools of S. Thomas and S. Mary at Kuching.

The Bishop in Corea was among those who asked for help in sending workers to England. He wished to send to S. Stephen's House, Oxford, for two years, a Japanese student, whom the Society had already helped with educational expenses, for a course of theological study, and our response was £50 a year for the course. The other application was on behalf of a Japanese lady who had been helping in a mission hospital, and wished to be trained for evangelistic work in Corea. As she had four years' education in English schools in Tokyo, the Bishop thought her training could best be obtained in England, and £50 a year for two years was promised. One other grant of £80 for the diocese was for a church which would be the centre of a group of mission buildings.

The Bishop in Western China wrote about the Church College in the Christian University at Chengtu, and £100 was voted, and £60 was promised for a theological student of the diocese of Fukien for a three-years' course at S. John's University, Shanghai.

The Bishop of Victoria (Hong Kong) wished to send a student to S. Augustine's College, Canterbury, and £90 was promised for a three-years' course in preparation for Holy Orders.

Another request for help in sending a worker to England came from the Bishop in N. China, who wrote about one of the teachers at S. Faith's School, Peking. An old pupil of that school, after graduation she returned to the staff, and had been recently appointed Principal, thereby bringing the school within the requirements of the educational authorities, that there must be a Chinese Principal. A visit to England to study and to gain some experience of the working of English schools was regarded as a most useful step for the future of S. Faith's School, but, as the Bishop wrote, it was an act of faith, for the future of any mission school was uncertain under present conditions in that country. Our help was promised to the extent of £50 for the expenses of one year, which will be spent in educational work as student and teacher.

From Japan came two requests for help to students while in England. The late Bishop Motoda, of Tokyo, asked for some help for a young deacon who had been sent to Kelham and S. Augustine's College, Canterbury, for a course of study, and £25 was paid. The other request was from the Bishop in Kobé on behalf of one of his clergy who had been one year at Kelham (without our help) and was recommended for a second year, but needed some financial help to stay for this further period: £50 was promised.

Australia.

Grants were made to five dioceses only for the purposes which are the subject of this part of our report. But it must be remembered that apart from these purposes the Society is spending considerable sums on remuneration for Voyage Chaplains, whose ministry on board ship is for the welfare of those who are going to the Church in Australia. The part which S.P.C.K. has taken in the provision of church buildings and the training of clergy in this great country is a large one, and we rejoice to see that there is in view some increased support of our funds from dioceses as well as from congregations and individuals. The Rev. A. E. Kain (S. John's Rectory, Salisbury, S. Australia) is our Organising Secretary, and is showing much energy in bringing to the notice of those who might be expected to contribute facts about the past and present help which has been given to the development of Church life in that country. To those clergy in Australia who may see this report we give an invitation to make themselves known to us when coming to England, that we may arrange with them to act as Voyage Chaplains on their return. The remuneration goes some way towards the cost of the passage, and they may be certain of the sympathy and help of the ships' officers in the exercise of their ministry.

The Bishop of Carpentaria laid before us a scheme for a new church on Moa Island, which would take the place of a building hitherto used for services and now to be used as a school. £80 was promised for the new church, and as the Society some years ago contributed to the earlier building, we can claim that the work has developed by the aid which S.P.C.K. has given.

In North Queensland £300 was voted for three theological students, of whom two will take a course in the University of Queensland before entering a theological college. For some years the Society has offered extended help for men, if arrangements can be made for them to graduate before taking their special theological course. One grant of £100 was made for a church in this diocese.

The Bishops of Gippsland and Bathurst made application for two candidates for ordination, and help was promised for these at £60 and £90.

A first application from the new diocese of S. Arnaud for a church building grant met with a response of £50, to help a congregation in a new district being developed by the settlement of people from the old country.

Canning's Fund.—The founder of this trust fund established a valuable form of aid towards the expenses of missionaries going overseas for the first time. The income is £296, which is very easily exhausted in these days when service overseas is becoming more general, and is from time to time supplemented by a grant from our General Fund; thereby S.P.C.K. relieves the anxiety of many Bishops or their Commissaries, whose slender funds available for passage money are inadequate for this inevitable expenditure. In the past year £300 was voted to supplement the fund, and 22 grants amounting to £395 were allowed; viz. Antigua (3), B. Honduras, Cariboo, Damaraland, Kimberley and Kuruman, Lucknow, Masasi (2), Melanesia, Nassau (3), Nyasaland (2), Northern Rhodesia, Persia (2), Southern Rhodesia, Upper Nile and Zanzibar.

The Treasurers would welcome any capital gift or legacy which might be held in trust for the same purpose as this Canning's Fund, thereby increasing the ability of the Society to help in the sending of missionaries, without drawing upon the resources of the General Fund. There are many trust funds held for various useful purposes, but perhaps none is more valuable than this which meets the expenses of travel. Suggestions as to the conditions which should govern the administration of a gift or legacy for this purpose can be supplied to any persons who might like to associate themselves with this particular form of help as a response to the World Call.

THE FOREIGN LITERATURE COMMITTEE.

Report for Year ending March 31, 1928.

Many incidents of interest and importance have taken place during the year in the work of this Committee, which bids fair to become one of the outstanding branches of the Society's activity.

(i) The Committee have given careful consideration to the publication of books for Jews, primarily in Hebrew, though English, German and Yiddish are also missionary languages where Jews are concerned. They have enlisted the services of the Rev. P. P. Levertoff at home, whose Hebrew version of The Confessions of St. Augustine has been published in order to make a start, and abroad the Jerusalem Committee hope to form a group which shall consider and recommend Hebrew works to the home Society.

(ii) The Near East.—The fourth year of the Egypt and Jerusalem Committee has seen progress and set-backs. On the one hand, sales of Arabic books continue to grow. The proceeds of sales rose from £262 to £321, a very satisfactory figure considering that the Christian community is so small and the price of the books so low; a considerable number of books must have been bought by Moslems. The art missionary employed by this Committee involves the Society in a net outlay of from £60 to £70 a year. Her help increases the efficiency of the work considerably; indeed, her drawings are setting a new standard for Egyptian Government publications.

The set-back referred to is the death of Canon Gairdner, himself a great linguist and teacher of Arabic to others. Even more noteworthy was his influence on the spiritual life of his fellow-missionaries and of the little Egyptian Church. He has passed from us, but his influence will long remain in the lives of those whom he has inspired. The other difficulties have been caused by illnesses and furloughs affecting the lady workers.

Two books in Persian signalise a start made on the programme mentioned in last year's Report. The Life Story of a Christian was published for the Inter-Mission Committee, The Spirit of Christ for the C.M.S. Both books were produced by photography from hand-made "copy." In this way misprints become impossible.

(iii) India.—In spite of a conference at which all the dioceses were represented it has not proved possible to make a start with the All-India Committee. The Bishops have settled its constitution, but no suitable person to act as Secretary has as yet been found. The various Diocesan Committee are functioning with more or less efficiency, though the difficulties in the way of energetic progress seem well-nigh insuperable. The Calcutta Committee have published a version of St. Mark's Gospel in Bengali by a brilliant Indian scholar. The definitive version of a book of the Bible must be the work of a Committee. There is room for non-official attempts of this kind, which will point the way to the more truly Indian versions of the future.

(iv) The Far East.—It was a pleasure to receive a parcel of new Chinese books from Peking, and to learn that Bishop Norris had survived the grievous troubles which have afflicted China.

In Japan real advance can be recorded. The Rev. C. S. Evans of the American Mission has become Secretary of the Church Publishing Society. He reports a sale of 15,812 books and 11,619 tracts in the year 1927, in all 27,431. The American Mission is providing a warehouse for the Society, and still further improvement in sales may be expected. The liabilities incurred after the earthquake have at last been wiped out.

In another department the S.P.C.K. has rendered help—the Newspaper Evangelisation work, inaugurated and continued by the Rev. W. H. Murray Walton; £100 was granted towards the extension of the work in connection with the National Church Mission. The Committee are most anxious to secure the permanence of this most useful work, and are consulting with the S.P.G. and C.M.S. in the hope of producing a co-operative scheme. The method may be briefly summarised thus. Brief Christian messages are put in the newspapers inviting those who want information to apply at the local "New Life" hall—a room hired or built for the purpose. Such as want instruction are enrolled as members of the New Life Society (for which they pay a fee!). Books are lent them. Those who are out of touch with a pastor are instructed by correspondence. Many baptisms have resulted from the campaign.

(v) Africa, General.—The S.P.C.K. subscribed £25 through the Conference of British Missionary Societies to the International Institute of African Languages and Culture. It was most important that the missionary Societies should play their part and be fairly represented on the governing body. Nothing like so large a sum will be required in the future. The advantages of the new body are already manifest, and the Secretary has given considerable personal help to the S.P.C.K.

The "African Books Advisory Committee" has held frequent meetings. So far little has appeared as a result of its labours, but the series of "Little Books for Africa" (twopenny illustrated pamphlets) has reached No. 16 and has won golden opinions.

(vii) In Swahili and Luganda books the Society continues to co-operate with the local education offices. A noteworthy event is the decision to make Swahili the medium of instruction in the Eastern provinces of Uganda. Some million and a half people are affected.

(viii) The Prize Essay competition for natives has been duly held, and in one language, Sixosa, the results are considerably in advance of expectations. Nine prizes of £3 each have been awarded, and it is hoped to publish a little volume of native theological essays.

In our divisions (vi) West Africa, (ix) North America, (x) South America, (xi) the Pacific, nothing of importance has occurred.

A complete list of works published since the last Report will be found on pp. 239–250. The number of items is 108, compared with 130 in the previous year, and 32 in 1923.

The accounts will be found on p. 84.

The total number of separate books and pamphlets sold by the Committee and its overseas branches is in the neighbourhood of half a million a year. Practically none are given away. The expenditure of £4,000 from the Society's General Fund on this branch of the work must be accounted cheap propaganda.

The most important of the grants made during the year under review were:—

£500 to the Egypt and Jerusalem Committee, for Arabic Literature.

£66 15*s.* 6*d.* to the above, for Artist account.

Rs. 1,444 3*a.* 6*p.*, Calcutta Diocese Committee, for Bengali Literature, block grant.

£18 10*s.* 3*d.* for 1,000 sets of Bible pictures sent to Rangoon Diocesan Board of Missions, for Burmese Old and New Testament Picture Books.

£70 to Bishop Norris, Peking, for Chinese Literature.
£200 to the Church Publishing Society, Tokyo, for Japanese Literature.
£100 to the Rev. W. H. Murray Walton for Japanese Newspaper Evangelisation work.
£75 to the Uganda Diocesan Fund, for a literary worker in Luganda.
Rs. 305 to the Bombay Diocesan Vernacular Committee, for Marathi and Gujerati books.
£30 for Marathi Imitation of Christ, Part III.
£30 for Marathi Rivington's Manual of Theology.
Rs. 624 12*a.* to the Dornakal Committee, for Telegu Literature.
Rs. 714 to the Lahore Diocesan Committee, for Urdu books.
£96 6*s.* 3*d.* to the Bishop of Calcutta, for expenses of an All-Indian Church Literature Conference, held at Madras in March 1927.
£25 to the International Institute of African Languages and Culture.

THE PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT.

THE outstanding feature of the year ending March 31, 1928, was the acute Prayer Book controversy. A great deal of the energy that in the previous year was devoted to The World Call was spent in discussions about the Prayer Book. Let us hope that the public has received illumination and that good has been done. The immediate results have been very harmful to S.P.C.K. The sales of Prayer Books fell to very small figures, and those of hymn books, and even Bibles, fell off in sympathy.

The Society's pamphlet literature has been much in demand. We rejoice at this, for one of our chief works is to be a Church Tract Society. But the pecuniary benefits received from even a very large sale of tracts are naturally very small.

The complete list of publications (see pp. 239–250) since the 1927 Report witnesses to the breadth of the Society's interests.

The accounts for the year will be found on p. 84.

A publisher must always be looking forward, and we prefer to emphasise our future plans rather than dwell on the past, the record of which is contained in the list of books published and the accounts. During the last year the New Commentary on Holy Scripture, edited by Dr. Gore, Canon Goudge and Prof. Guillaume, has occupied every spare moment of the Editorial Staff's time. The subsidiary work required in connection with so great an undertaking is indeed laborious. During the autumn of this year this long-expected book will appear. We trust that its learning, sobriety and theological surefootedness will have a steadying effect on the Church of England. Such works are nowadays generally on an inter-denominational basis. It is doubtful if any religious body other than the Anglican has the scholarship at its disposal wherewith to carry through a work of this importance unaided.

CHURCH LITERATURE FOR THE BLIND.

THE progress of the Braille Department has been well maintained, and the interest aroused by an appeal on two separate occasions on behalf of those of our readers who are unable to pay for Braille books themselves met with a most generous response. This included a large number of donations towards our monthly magazine, The Church Messenger, which is now sent regularly to about 250 readers as against 215 in 1927, and the letters received over and over again speak not only for its popularity but also for its usefulness.

Though we have 250 names on our List, this by no means embraces all our readers, as copies are being constantly passed on from one reader to another. The following is an extract from a letter recently received:

> "I was talking to my friend Miss R. about the C. M. and we both agreed it grew more helpful and interesting every month. I receive the C. M. through Miss R., who kindly gives it to me when she has done with it; I then lend it to a friend at Watlington, then to a friend in Yorkshire, after which she sends it to a friend at Williamsport, Pa., U.S.A., who then sends it to a young student in China."

This shows not only appreciation but the desire to let others share what the writer evidently thinks is "a good thing."

The serial this year, "A Layman's History of the Church of England," was chosen by vote from a list of six books submitted to our readers, and the following extract shows the interest taken in it:

> "May I say with full-voiced emphasis that we members of the weekly class for women at John St., W.C., find the greatest pleasure in reading every issue of the magazine. We are especially interested in reading 'A Layman's History of the Church of England'; Miss —— brings the magazine to the meeting, and then it falls to my good fortune to read the copy right through to my friends."

At the beginning of the year it was decided, in conjunction with the St. John's Guild for the Blind, to issue a book for Lent, The Companionship of Jesus, by Canon Bell, and although in the first instance only 50 copies were printed, the demand was so great that ultimately nearly 400 copies were supplied, of which number 102 were distributed free of charge. This we were enabled to do through the generosity of many persons, who sent donations amounting to £28 8*s.* 6*d.* towards the expenses of our Lent book. We have now published What is God Like? by Bishop Woods (2*s.* 6*d.*), and hope that it will be equally popular.

The orders for hand-made books have come in steadily. One book required—Moral Values—runs into 14 volumes, the recipient of which gives unstinted praise for what he considers a valuable asset to his work ; another book, which will consist of five volumes or possibly more when completed, is for a reader preparing to take Holy Orders.

We have also a number of the "Benn Sixpenny Library" books on order. Our Braille Literature is not confined to the British Isles, but goes out to the United States, Canada, Burma, Japan, and New Zealand. In connection with this work we cannot express warmly enough our appreciation of the help given us by our voluntary workers (the number increased this year by ten), and there are eight pupils who are all working to reach that high standard we strive to maintain for the benefit of our blind friends.

ORGANISING AND PROPAGANDA.

EXTRACTS from the Central Organising Secretary's Annual Report form this section, showing what has been done, and indicating what should be done.

(1) Staff.—(a) This year has been one of almost unprecedented change. The Rev. T. Robinson of the Southern District has left us for Melbourne, Australia, the Rev. A. L. Wordsworth of the diocese of Carlisle for Pretoria, and the Rev. B. J. Jones of the Western District and South Wales for parochial work as priest-in-charge of St. Matthew's, Swansea. The Rev. F. C. Cuthbert Atkin, who had championed our cause so manfully for four years in the colossal District of the Northern Province with Scotland and the Isle of Man, accepted the benefice of Darnall, Sheffield, last November. We cannot speak too highly of Mr. Atkin's work. It was real pioneering, accomplished with amazing zeal and energy. That District has now been divided into the Northern, and (at present for want of a better term) the Lower Northern Districts, over which the Rev. S. V. Green and the Rev. R. E. Beckley respectively have been appointed. This step has necessitated the termination of the work of the Rev. W. Graham, the Rev. H. G. Potter, and the Rev. C. Snushall as part-time Secretaries for the dioceses of Chester, Wakefield and Ripon.

A new Midland District has been constituted to include the dioceses of Birmingham, Coventry, Gloucester, Hereford, Lichfield and Worcester. The Rev. W. Graham from the Chester diocese is now more closely associated with us as full-time Secretary for this Midland District. In the Southern District, changed by the subtraction of the dioceses of Birmingham and Coventry and the addition of the diocese of Bristol, the Rev. C. H. Donne is working.

In South Wales, as proposed last year, we have appointed four separate Diocesan Secretaries as a temporary measure until such time when it may be possible to appoint a full-time man for the whole of the Province of Wales. These four are the Rev. R. E. Stockdale for Llandaff, the Rev. H. G. H. Griffith for Swansea and Brecon, the Rev. T. J. Goodwin for St. David's, and the Rev. W. C. Feetham for Monmouth.

To all those who have by reason of these changes had to give up their work as our official representatives we would like here to record our thanks.

(b) With regard to our R. D. Secretaries the figures are still disquieting. During the past year 79 have given up work for us, 11 through death and 68 through removal to other parishes. Of these 79 vacancies, only 34 have been filled. Forty-one new Hon. Secretaries have been appointed to Rural Deaneries where previously we were not represented. Whereas last year there were 570 Rural Deaneries with an S.P.C.K. Hon. Secretary, and 288 without, this year there are only 556 with, and as many as 304 without, again the shortage being mainly in the Southern Province.

I fancy that many of our R. D. Secretaries feel that their post is a sinecure and that there is nothing for them to do. The way to get people interested is to work them, and that is our business as organisers. I am fully aware that there are considerable difficulties. But difficulties only arise that they may be overcome. I do most strongly urge the absolute necessity of gathering our R. D. Secretaries together in each Diocese certainly once in every year, not only for Conference and the imparting of knowledge, but chiefly for corporate spiritual exercise. Increased efficiency would come by such meetings as well as an improvement in knowledge of the Society's interest and work.

(c) From Overseas we have had encouraging reports from the Rev. A. E. Kain in Australia; substantial gain has been made both in propaganda and financial returns. In Tasmania we received news of the resignation of the Rev. F. B. Sharland, who had sustained our interests for so many years, and the appointment in his place of the Rev. H. M. Maddock.

(2) Work Accomplished.—(a) Diocesan Missionary Councils. We have continued to press for adequate recognition and representation on all Diocesan Missionary Councils, and are glad to be able to record an improved position. Out of 49 dioceses our Secretaries now have a place on the Councils of 21 ex officio compared with 16 last year; 6 by election compared with 5 previously; and 8 by co-option compared with 3 of the previous year. In one diocese we are represented by a member not officially connected with our Society. In two dioceses we are officially represented, but I have been unable to obtain definite information as to our status. Thus we are definitely represented on the Councils of 38 dioceses compared with the previous year's 12.

(b) Sermons, Meetings, etc.—Of Sermons, while no doubt there have been many of which we know nothing preached by the parochial clergy in their parishes when collections have been given to the Society, we can only give figures of those of which we have been notified through our Secretaries' Reports. Of these we have to record a total of 677, 149 of which were preached by others and 528 by our own Secretaries. This shows how great a debt we owe to those others; for it has risen from 85 of the previous year to 149 in this. We record here our gratitude. The other figure of sermons preached—528—is the work of our own Secretaries and shows a decline of two on the last year's record.

Meetings.—The big Public Meetings were held as usual in York, Leeds and Sheffield, but were not so well attended as before. I fancy that, coming at a time when we had not fixed our new staff in the Northern Province, it was not possible to put into the work of preparation all the effort that Mr. Atkin had previously expended.

An experiment was made at Cardiff of a concentrated campaign to stimulate interest in an area where S.P.C.K. was little known or supported. We had the help of the Bishop of Lebombo and three members of our staff. An entry was gained into 12 Churches besides an address at a public meeting and the R. D. Conference. I commend the policy of the concentrated campaign to every area as well worth trying.

For our Anniversary Celebrations we again began with a Sung Eucharist at Westminster Abbey. Two new departures were made this year. First in keeping to one subject at all sermons and meetings during the day, and secondly in having only one speaker at the afternoon meeting apart from the Presidential Address of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The subject chosen was "Christian Education in the Mission Field," dealt with in the morning by the Bishop of Carpentaria as regards Our Own People; in the afternoon by Professor Sorabji with reference to the Peoples of India; and in the evening by the Rev. C. C. Watts in regard to the Coloured People of South Africa. The plan was eminently successful, and our Meetings were better attended than they have been for some years past.

(c) Lantern Lectures and Slides.—We made the experiment of producing two new lectures—"The Birth of a Modern Nation," dealing with China, and "Factotum," on the general work of the Society—at a cost of about £35. At the same time we produced a leaflet advertising these. This was broadcast through all correspondence. The results speak for themselves. Lantern Lectures given during the year ending March 1928 numbered 84, 50 being given in the Southern Province,

30 in the Northern Province, based on the Society's slides, 1 in Scotland and 3 in Wales. The 2 new lectures, issued only in November, have already been used 34 times. Thus of the total of 84 lectures, 68 were based on notes supplied by the Society, 27 being given by our own Secretaries, and 41 by others. Sixteen Lantern Lectures, 13 in the Northern Province, and 3 in the Southern Province, were given by our own Secretaries on their private notes. It would appear, therefore, that there is a demand still for Lantern Lecture work, and that it is quite possible to create a market.

(d) Exhibitions.—We have taken part in 15 Missionary Exhibitions this year as against 9 of the year before; 8 in the Southern Province, in Bognor, Chatham, Guernsey, Jersey, Nottingham, Retford, Ryde and Truro, and 7 in the Northern Province, at Leeds, Manchester, Rochdale, Sheffield, Stanley, Ardwick and Heswall, the two last being quite small parochial efforts. I believe it is most important to get into all the Missionary Exhibitions possible. They are valuable for propaganda and they are valuable for financial purposes too.

But two things have struck me which I think may be deserving of note. First, with regard to our getting an invitation to participate. This depends on the clergy of the locality concerned. It is obviously essential, therefore, that we should have a Secretary in every Rural Deanery, and that he should be a live man. It is essential again that our R. D. Secretaries should know the character and scope of the exhibits we would display. They are popularly supposed, often even among the clergy, to be mainly composed of books, and that our Courts are likely to be unattractive. The knowledge of our R. D. Secretaries will need stimulating in this respect. I suggest that a valuable help to a meeting of R. D. Secretaries will be our new Travelling Exhibition.

We have recently prepared material for a simple Travelling Court for parochial and Ruridecanal purposes. It is intended specially for country areas, as being easily portable in a motor-car.

Then, secondly, I would point out that an Exhibition should provide a valuable opening for new canvassing of parishes for support.

One point certainly suggests itself. There are obtained in every Exhibition an average of 25 Court Stewards. These are trained in preparation, and consequently are presumed to have gained a considerable amount of information with regard to our Society's work. We are now recording a complete list of all Exhibition Court Stewards. This would amount in the past year to about 375 persons who have been interested and have some knowledge of our work. I feel that these ought to be a real asset. With the knowledge of these persons and their addresses it should be within the scope of the ingenuity of our District Secretaries to devise some means for their further use.

(3) Finance.—The Accountant's figures for the year ending 31st March, 1928, show in subscriptions a drop of £428 from the total of 1927, an increase of only £1 on the figure of 1925, the year previous to the proclamation of the "World Call." Donations too show a drop of £40, an increase, however, of more than 100 per cent. on the total of 1925. In Church Collections there is a disappointing drop of £175 on the previous year. Legacies only show an increase, a matter of £730.

(a) Subscribers.—The list shows a depreciation through death of 191; subscribers definitely cancelled 44; names struck off the list after being four years in arrears 83—total 318. New members elected during the year 201, giving a net deficit of 117. If an effort were made to get three new subscribers in each diocese the number would be completely made up. If every Secretary set himself to get ten others in each of his dioceses we should more than make good for the current year. Personally I have found Exhibitions a most fruitful source, and there are other ways as well.

(b) Church Collections.—Our Preaching Engagements are generally for immediate or deferred collections. I feel that we must boldly claim increased support from those to whom we speak. It is helpful and stimulating sometimes definitely to ask for a certain sum for a specific object, and the collection can often be assisted by the use of seed envelopes, "My Gift to S.P.C.K." Where collections are not given at the time, these envelopes might almost invariably be used. Those who have used them testify to their success.

(c) Collecting Boxes.—Our information at present is very fragmentary. During the last ten years there have been issued from Headquarters 2,947 boxes. Where are they now? Are they all being used? If so, is it in our service? If not, what is being done with them? Many, I expect, are lost and many more forgotten. During last year we issued 263 new ones. Are they being watched? Are steps being taken to check their opening? I believe this is a matter that wants more careful handling.

(d) Lent Boxes.—Here we are distinctly encouraged. The average for some years, I am told, has been an issue of about 200 boxes a year. This year a new collapsible Lent Box was issued, and no less than 1,003 were despatched.

(e) The Birthday Cakes.—These boxes for Founders' Day have again reaped a harvest. In 1927 there were 430 used in some 13 parishes, producing altogether £31 16*s.* 8*d.* This year 20 parishes have used the scheme and some additional individuals, 935 boxes being issued. Up to date only 9 of these parishes have sent in the money collected—a total of £43 3*s.* 4*d.* There are still 11 more parishes and 12 individuals to forward their amount. It is a profitable system and might well be more widely used. I myself have found it the means of an entry to parishes and schools where support could not otherwise have been forthcoming, and one of our District Secretaries has found the same. Schools in particular, where we often have an entry to talk of the work of the Society, will generally be found ready to use this "catchcrop" system with the appeal of the birthday idea.

(f) Exhibitions.—In my opinion Missionary Exhibitions are distinctly an opportunity for financial gain apart from the proportion of general profits, if any, allotted to us. I know that in theory an Exhibition is regarded as a propagandist agency. The Society is there to advance the cause and explain the work of Missions as a whole, yet even so, if we believe the work of our Society to be essential to every other Society in every part of the world, and if, as we find everywhere, our share in the work is so largely unknown, then we must be propagandists of our own Society's work.

These are some of our money-getting ways. We all want to make sure that we are au fait with every possible method to lay before any type of parish, organisation, or individual. Do not let us be ashamed of thinking of our work as largely that of money-getting. Money is a tremendous power. We are asked, we are glad, to try and release it increasingly for the purpose of God. Money is a sacramental expression of interest; and it is our privilege to help in administering that sacrament. It makes our work base and unworthy if we allow ourselves to regard money as mere £ s. d. It is a gift of God, a sacred trust. It needs special gifts and faculties to claim it for God's work. If we ask God's blessing on those gifts of His to us, we must not leave the matter there. We must use the gifts. We must pray about our money-getting long and earnestly, and set out to get it confidently. There is no shortage of it. It is our work to release it. If we think of it in that way there will be a noble zest in gathering it, a thing to lift us up. No soul-destroying work is money-getting for the Kingdom of Christ. It is rather soul-destroying to be shy of it.

(4) Propaganda.—Nearly all our Leaflets have been revised recently on the silhouette method. I would welcome help in the way of suggestions and ideas and criticisms too. I would suggest that by a far more stringent use of our propaganda leaflets for Churches and Meetings we would lose nothing of our force. One leaflet carefully chosen and placed in every letter we wrote will tell more powerfully than 100 broadcast. One or more pinned prominently on the Church Notice Board will often attract more attention than many in the pews.

Diocesan Calendars.—In all these we now have a full-page advertisement for our overseas work prepared at Headquarters, but in very many we are allowed gratis a further space for a statement about the Society and its local workers. Notices of the Society are placed in the Hand-book at Missionary Exhibitions, etc. We have a specially prepared article for the purpose which is always available. I am sure that considerably more use might be made of the Press. Editors are only too ready to accept news items, provided they are news and not camouflaged advertisements. Announcements and reports of sermons and speeches are often welcome if well written and contributed.

	939	£4,068	19	10

The above brief summary of the book grants voted during the past year shows a slight increase on the figures for the previous year, and is occasioned partly by the larger number of requests for Prayer-books for use in Public Worship and in the grant voted for literature for use by the Society's Port and Voyage Chaplains (£300 as against £150). This is due to the fact of the balance available at the end of May for this purpose being insufficient to provide for the number of prospective chaplaincies arranged.

The annual grants of £100 each for the Missions to Seamen Society and the St. Andrew's Waterside Church Mission were again renewed.

Two applications of interest were a request from the Bishop of Willochra for Bibles, Prayer-books and other literature for use amongst the settlers in the newly-settled districts in his diocese, and one from the Bishop of Ballarat for similar books for the new Soldiers' Settlements at Glenorchy and Pachendale, towards which the Committee recommended grants of £25 and £10 respectively.

254 missionaries going abroad for the first time were helped with gifts of books for their personal use to the value of £696.

The privilege of purchasing books in the proportion of £3 for an expenditure of £1, with a limit of £6, to students in theological colleges and newly-ordained clergymen was again largely taken advantage of, the number of applications being 343 and the value of books so supplied £1,526 17*s.* 6*d.*

Picture Cards, for children in hospitals and dispensaries in the United Kingdom were sent out at Christmas, as in previous years, to 42 rate-supported and voluntary hospitals and institutions in which there were some 7,229 patients.

Season Tracts, offered to the parochial clergy for the various seasons of the Church, were issued as follows:—

XXXIX. FOREIGN LITERATURE FUND.—There shall be a separate account, called "The Foreign Literature Fund," and all money paid to this fund shall be applied exclusively to the purposes of the Foreign Literature Committee, and be administered by that Committee in conjunction with the Finance Committee of the SOCIETY.

XL. CHURCH YEAR-BOOK COMMITTEE—NUMBER AND DUTIES OF.—The Church Year-Book Committee shall consist of nine Members of the SOCIETY, of whom one shall not have served in the previous year, and of whom three at least shall be Members of the Standing Committee. The duty of this Committee shall be to superintend the preparation and publication of "The Official Year-Book of the Church of England," subject to the approval by the Finance Committee, of all outlay necessary for these objects. If any question shall arise as to the matter published in this book, it shall be referred to the Standing Committee, whose decision shall be final.*

XLI. CHURCH HYMN-BOOK COMMITTEE.—

(a) There shall be a Hymn-Book Committee, to be appointed by the Standing Committee, consisting of nine persons, of whom at least six shall be members of the SOCIETY, to whom the preparation and publication of any future Hymn-books of the SOCIETY shall be entrusted; all outlay for such purposes being subject to the approval of the Finance Committee.

(b) All questions of doubt and difficulty arising in the Hymn-Book Committee shall be referred to the President of the SOCIETY, the Archbishop of Canterbury, with such assessors as His Grace may see fit to appoint, whose decision shall be final.

XLII. CASUAL VACANCIES IN COMMITTEES: HOW FILLED UP.—Vacancies occurring in the above-mentioned Statutory Committees before the year of office has expired, shall be filled up by the Standing Committee, and the names of the new members reported to the next General Meeting.

XLIII. DISTRICT COMMITTEES.—District Committees of this SOCIETY shall be established for the purpose of furthering its designs, subject to such regulations as may be made from time to time by a General Meeting.

XLIV. AUDITORS, DUTIES OF.—The accounts of the SOCIETY shall be referred annually to Auditors, appointed at the General Meeting in March, who shall examine them, and make a Report thereupon to the General Meeting in June following.

XLV. TREASURERS, DUTIES OF.—There shall be four Treasurers, who, or any one of whom, shall be qualified to give receipts for all bequests or other moneys payable to the SOCIETY, and the Treasurers for the time being of the SOCIETY shall be the Trustees of the SOCIETY. All moneys shall be paid in to the account of the SOCIETY, at the SOCIETY'S Bankers, to be drawn out on the signature of one of the Treasurers, countersigned by a second Treasurer or one of the Secretaries.

* This Committee is not appointed, as the Year-Book is now under the control of the Church Assembly.

XLVI. SECRETARIES, DUTIES OF.—There shall be two Secretaries, each of whom shall be chief in his own department, and in whose joint names all the public documents of the SOCIETY shall be issued. One of the Secretaries, to be distinguished as "The Secretary for General Purposes," shall be responsible for all the business of the SOCIETY relating to its organisation, finance, grants of money, and general policy, except so far as the Publishing Department is concerned; the other, to be distinguished as "The Secretary for the Publishing Department," shall be similarly responsible for all the business of the SOCIETY relating to its editorial, publishing, and trading operations, except business for the time being assigned by the Standing Committee to any Manager or other persons. In public documents, to which the names of both Secretaries shall be appended, the name of the Secretary for General Purposes shall, for the sake of convenience, always stand first, irrespective of seniority.

XLVII. MEETINGS, BUSINESS PAPER OF.—The Secretaries shall lay before the Chairman at every General Meeting a statement of the business to be done, including all matters left undetermined at the preceding General Meeting, and the same practice shall be observed with regard to all Meetings of Committees.

XLVIII. METHOD OF ANNOUNCING ELECTION TO NEW MEMBERS.—The Secretaries shall send the following notice to all newly-elected Members, together with a copy of the Rules XV., XVI., and XVII., relating to subscriptions, and of the Rules XIX., XX., and XXI., relating to Books:—

Sir,—

We have the pleasure of informing you that you are elected a subscribing Member of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. You will readily understand, from the Annual Report, the designs of the Society, who desire all their Members to join with them in prayers for the Divine blessing on their endeavours to advance the glory of God and the good of mankind.

Signed _____

Secretaries.

XLIX. ANNUAL REPORT.—The Secretaries shall prepare an Annual Report of the principal transactions of the SOCIETY during the preceding year, to be laid before the General Meeting in October.

L. SECRETARIES TO EXPLAIN ACCOUNTS.—At the July Meeting in each year the Secretaries shall give a detailed explanation of the yearly Accounts, and shall invite observations thereon.

LI. APPOINTMENT OF TREASURERS AND SECRETARIES.—The Treasurers and Secretaries shall be elected by the General Meeting, upon the recommendation of the Standing Committee.

LII. OFFICE HOURS.—Attendance shall be given in the Office daily at such hours as shall be fixed from time to time by the Standing Committee, the Offices and Depositories of the SOCIETY being closed on Christmas Day, Good Friday, and Ascension Day.

LIII. BUSINESS OF THE OFFICE.—The business of the Office shall be under the superintendence of the Treasurers and Secretaries.

LIV. PRAYERS TO BE USED AT MEETINGS.—The prayers annexed to these Rules shall be read at every Meeting of the SOCIETY (see p. iv.).

LET US REMEMBER

THE EMPIRE SETTLER

THE TRAVELLERS BY SEA, AND THE ADVENTURERS WHO GO TO MAKE A NEW HOME ACROSS THE SEAS

Our Church, through the S.P.C.K., can care for them if you will help.

WHAT IS BEING DONE?

1. Provision of Port Chaplains at Liverpool, Southampton, London, Bristol, Belfast, Londonderry, Glasgow and Greenock, and at Overseas ports of arrival (see p. 65).
2. Appointment of clergy, wherever possible, as voyage-chaplains.
3. Publication and distribution of a directory of clergy in all lands, to whom letters commending travellers can be addressed by their friends and clergy in the old country.

PERHAPS SOME of YOUR RELATIONS or FRIENDS have been HELPED!

WHAT IS YOUR PART?

1. To REALISE that although the Church of England Council of Empire Settlement, the Church Army, the Waifs and Strays Society, etc., etc., often send out Emigrants, THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND DEPENDS SOLELY ON S.P.C.K. TO GIVE THEM THE SACRAMENTS on the voyage, and to PROVIDE THEM WITH PASTORAL CARE, AND A KIND FRIEND in the person of the ship's padre.
2. To pray regularly for those journeying by sea to a far country, and for those who minister to them.
3. To see that this work is not hindered through lack of funds. Gifts may be "earmarked" for this purpose (see p. 16).

APPENDIX TO AUDIT ACCOUNT

SHOWING DETAILS OF MEMBERSHIP AND CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE GENERAL FUND OF THE SOCIETY

1 April, 1927, to 31 March, 1928.

† Denotes that the contribution is for the Foreign Literature Fund.

‡ For Medical Mission Work.

§ For Spiritual Work among Empire Settlers.

‖ For Braille Church Literature.

L.A.S.—In lieu of annual subscription. E.S.—Endowment subscription.

Subscriptions may be compounded—

(a) for life, £20 for £1 1 0
40 ,, 2 2 0
100 ,, 5 5 0

(b) for perpetual endowment, £25 for £1 1 0
50 ,, 2 2 0
125 ,, 5 5 0

Income Tax Recoverable.—The Society has recovered income tax on all the subscriptions which have been paid under an agreement that they will be given for not less than seven years. The plan does not involve any increased payment by the subscriber; the tax which he has already paid on that portion of his income subscribed to S.P.C.K. is recovered by the Society. The agreement does not create any charge upon the estate of the subscriber who should die within seven years. Recovery of the tax means that £1 1*s.* 0*d.* subscription becomes to the Society £1 6*s.* 3*d.* at the present rate of tax. The form of agreement (of which the Society supplies copies) will be sent on request, for consideration by any member who contemplates adoption of this beneficial scheme.

N.B.—The amount of subscriptions actually received during the year is less than the aggregate of the subscriptions which may be expected from the Members in the Diocese, as a few subscriptions are unpaid.

An annual subscription of £1 1*s.* is the minimum sum for membership, and the year of election is shown against the member's name.

The Secretaries will be grateful for corrections, where names of subscribers or of parishes appear under the wrong diocese; care has been taken to secure accuracy, but errors arise sometimes where a private address near the border of a diocese includes a post town in the adjoining diocese.

Members' names appear under the Diocese in which they were resident at the date of payment during the year ended March 31, 1928.

A NEW COMMENTARY ON HOLY SCRIPTURE

INCLUDING THE APOCRYPHA

Edited by Charles Gore, D.D., formerly Bishop of Oxford; H. L. Goudge, D.D., Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford; and A. Guillaume, Professor of Hebrew and Semitic Languages in the University of Durham. $9\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$. 1,624 pp. Cloth boards. 16s. net. Extra strong binding, gilt top, 25s. net.

THIS GREAT WORK OF SCHOLARSHIP stands out from its predecessors in several ways.

Bishop Gore, the famous theologian who has done so much to reconcile the old faith with the new knowledge, has worked over the whole material and left upon it the impress of his unrivalled experience. The theological and religious bearings of criticism are kept in mind throughout.

PROFESSOR GOUDGE.

Much more space is given to the exegesis of the important books than in similar works of the kind. Thus Professor C. H. Turner has been allowed 70,000 words for his great Commentary on St. Mark.

For the first time the Apocrypha is included and the gap between the two Testaments is bridged.

The services of the best English, and one or two American, scholars have been enlisted, but the articles with theological bearings have been entrusted to those who share Bishop Gore's outlook, and combine acceptance of the traditional formulas of the Church with the modern critical methods. The whole work has therefore a unity and purpose of its own.

The book is clearly printed in a convenient size, and opens easily.

A full prospectus with specimen pages will be sent on application.

S.P.C.K. GENERAL BOOKS

A LITERARY HISTORY OF RELIGIOUS THOUGHT IN FRANCE. From the Wars of Religion down to our own times. Volume I., Devout Humanism. By Henri Bremond. Translated by K. L. Montgomery. $8\frac{3}{4} \times 5\frac{3}{4}$. 444 pp. Cloth boards. 16s. net.

This work, the first volume of which was published in Paris in 1916 under the title "Histoire Littéraire du Sentiment Religieux en France," has been recognised by discriminating readers as belonging to the few recent books really deserving the title "great." It traces the course of French religious literature from Richeome (1544-1625) to Yves de Paris and the struggle with Jansenism. To the English reader unfamiliar with the subject the study of this book is a veritable revelation. The theologians, biographers, hagiographers, novelists, poets, and humorists here described contain a wealth of culture which no contemporary nation could remotely approach. A world of learning and culture is here displayed, to make the acquaintance of which would be well worth while, even if a great effort were required in order to understand it. As it is, the architectural skill and the literary grace of the Abbé Bremond are such that the book is as easy as it is delightful to read. Some of the unique charm necessarily disappears in the English version, which is nevertheless offered to the public as a conscientious attempt to give an idiomatic and faithful version.

ENGLISH ECCLESIASTICAL STUDIES. Being some Essays in Research in Medieval History. By Rose Graham, M.A., F.S.A. With illustrations. $8\frac{3}{4} \times 5\frac{3}{4}$. 400 pp. Cloth boards. 15s. net.

Miss Graham's studies of Medieval life, largely concerned with Monasticism, represent the research of many years. The essays, which have appeared in various magazines, are now collected in permanent form. Among them are:—

THE RELATION OF CLUNY TO SOME OTHER MOVEMENTS OF MONASTIC REFORM.

THE ENGLISH PROVINCE OF THE ORDER OF CLUNY IN THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY.

THE PRIORY OF LA CHARITÉ-SUR-LOIRE AND THE MONASTERY OF BERMONDSEY.

THE TAXATION OF POPE NICHOLAS IV.

ESSAYS CATHOLIC AND MISSIONARY. Edited by E. R. Morgan. $8\frac{3}{4} \times 5\frac{3}{4}$. 340 pp. Cloth boards. 8s. 6d. net.

Missionary enterprise today has become a great world force. Governments are more and more taking account of it, and the Church in countries where Christianity has been long established is beginning to have its eyes fixed on the ends of the earth. What are the principles and aims of this mighty movement? One answer is: To bring all into the fold of Rome. Another is, or was till recently: To save souls from perdition. But there is a section which, if not very important as regards numbers, has great significance if ideas are weighed rather than heads counted—the Catholic Movement in the Anglican Church. Its answer is given in the present volume, which is the outcome of long-continued discussions, and to which some of the best experts at home and abroad have contributed.

A MANUAL GRAMMAR OF THE GREEK NEW TESTAMENT. By H. E. Dana, Th.D., and Julius R. Mantey, Th.D., D.D. $8 \times 5\frac{3}{4}$. 376 pp. Cloth boards. 12s. 6d. net.

The distinctive value of this work lies in the simplicity and clarity with which it presents the vital principles of Greek grammar. Each point is fully elucidated and illustrated by vivid examples from the New Testament. While it is a compendium of all the essential points of Greek New Testament grammar, it is at the same time a handbook pre-eminently adapted to all the needs of the average student. It is equipped with paradigms, the principal parts of irregular verbs, and an English-Greek vocabulary. The authors are thoroughly abreast with the latest researches and discoveries in Koiné Greek.

HOMES OF THE PSALMS. Their Original Meaning and Structure illustrated by the Surroundings in which they were First Used. By Stacy Waddy, M.A., Secretary of S.P.G. With four plans. 7¼ × 5. 296 pp. Cloth boards. 6s. net.

This very interesting and original work puts the Psalms on a background of the worshipping Jewish Church. Seven years' study of the spot have yielded surprising conclusions. Local knowledge has enabled the author to decide the sanctuaries—Jerusalem, Dan, Bethel, etc.—at which some of the Psalms were originally used.

The Rev. Stacy Waddy.

THE WONDERFUL STORY. A Life of Jesus for the Children of the Church. By the Rev. G. R. Oakley, M.A., B.D. With sixteen illustrations. 7¼ × 5. 256 pp. Cloth boards. 5s. net.

With great care and reverence the author has worked practically every incident and discourse of the Four Gospels into a consecutive story. He occasionally links the story with the experiences of a young churchman today, but so far as possible he lets the Bible speak for itself, reducing critical rearrangement to a minimum.

A TAOIST PEARL. By A. P. Quentin. Illustrated. $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5$. 160 pp. Cloth boards, 4s. 6d. net.

A simple and affecting story of Father Siao, a Taoist priest who by study of the New Testament and with the help of the Author, an evangelical Missionary, was converted to Christianity. The book is written in a spirit of living faith which is most attractive and introduces the reader very happily to the difficult subject of Taoism. The Taoist designs used to illustrate the book are novel and especially interesting.

PRIEST AND PARISH IN INDIA. (European Congregations.) Edited by the Right Rev. H. Waller, D.D., Bishop of Madras. $8\frac{3}{4} \times 5\frac{3}{4}$. 236 pp. Cloth boards. 3s. 6d. net.

The official book of Pastoralia prepared at the wish of the Episcopate as a guide to all Indian Chaplains in their work.

DRUMS OF FATE. A Romance of West Africa. By Arthur E. Southon. 7½ × 5. 288 pp. Cloth boards. 7s. 6d. net.

A white girl stolen in infancy by savages has been the heroine of many tropical romances. Usually she is just a beautiful savage, but capable of a meteoric rise to the hero's level when he appears upon the scene. In "Drums of Fate," a white child, daughter of missionaries in West Africa, is stolen in infancy and brought up with the belief that she is the daughter of Africa's most powerful god. Where "Drums of Fate" differs from other novels of its class is in the development of the girl. The two immense influences of heredity and environment play their part in making a great visionary whose dream is to win the world for an African god. The coming of a Christian missionary leads to a conflict of gods, and a drama of human love and hate. African fetish worship is shown as it is, with its attendant intrigues among jealous priests, and the girl is finally compelled tochoose between the god whose daughter she believes herself to be and the priest of a rival god whom she has learned to love.

THE LAUGHING GHOSTS. Tales of Adventure in West Africa. By Arthur E. Southon. 7½ × 5. 256 pp. Cloth boards. 6s. net.

These tales of adventure are fiction, but Captain Calverley, their hero, is not. He is a fair type of the young men in their twenties and thirties who, as District Officers, have brought British West Africa to its present prosperity and happiness. These splendid stories are an epic of the white man's heroism and of his service to Africa.

ARTHUR E. SOUTHON.

THE GODDESS OF MERCY. A Tale of Love and Turmoil in Modern China. By James Livingstone Stewart, Vice-President, West China University, Chengtu, Szechwan. 7½ × 5. 352 pp. Cloth boards. 7s. 6d. net.

This "Goddess of Mercy" is the same vivid, informative stuff that Dr. Stewart gave in "The Laughing Buddha." The story has the same breathless movement, but it is cumulative in the building up of its climax in a manner all its own. This is an outstanding novel on three grounds. First of all, it is a rattling tale. In the second place, it is a delightful idyll of first love. Finally, what a light it throws on the present situation in China! The author not only gives you the reek of the soil, the shadows and sounds of the mountains, but somehow he makes you share the long, long sense of mystery, of fearfulness and of fate that overshadows the mind of the people themselves. The "goddess of mercy" is a lady doctor who runs a home for abandoned girl babies.

LION-MAN. An Easter's Tale. By A. S. Cripps. 7½ × 5. 128 pp. Cloth boards. 3s. 6d. net.

An English savant, an agnostic whose wife is a devout believer, takes part in a native ceremony in Rhodesia, as a result of which he becomes a "lion-man" or "were-lion" and hunts cattle with a troop of similarly affected natives. Easter Day brings deliverance. Probably no one but Mr. Cripps could have written this beautiful little tale, the study of an obsession, to which the art of a poet, intimate knowledge of the African mind, and creative power have all contributed.

RED PEPPER, or, The Zanána Mystery. By Eleanor Pegg. 7½ × 5. 192 pp. Cloth boards. 2s. 6d. net.

A remarkable story of intrigue and mystery at the Court of a Native State, by an author whose long residence in South India has given her special opportunities of accurate knowledge.

PYRRHO. An Historical Novel. By Bertram Tollinton. 7¾ × 5¼. 416 pp. Cloth boards. 4s. 6d. net.

This book presents a good picture of life and thought in Alexandria in the early years of the third century. The author writes with a full knowledge of religions and philosophies, and constructs an impressive picture of the quest for truth at that important stage of the expansion of Christianity.

CONVENT TALES. By a Religious of St. Peter's Community, Kilburn. 7½ × 5. 160 pp. (S.P.C.K.) 3s. 6d. net.

Sheila Kaye-Smith writes: "The author writes with infinite sympathy and love for these lives which have touched her life and her imagination. To read it will be a revelation to those who believe that convent life consists only of cloistered services and solitary meditations. Its variety and its actuality are shown on every page of this most interesting little book."

The child is rescued by the Abbé de l'Épée and brought up in his Deaf and Dumb Asylum under Siccard. The asylum becomes the centre of the story during the Terror. The father, now softened, takes an interest in the asylum, not knowing his son is there. He also joins the people, and with Robespierre conspires to substitute a deaf and dumb child for the Dauphin. When at a later date the father is informed of the identity of the substitute, complications arise, and thrilling escapes take place. The boy, under shock of imprisonment, recovers his speech. The Dauphin reappears in 1816 only to die.
